Sorry Sam to keep sending info but I have been told that our local social work department would have the information back when I was in the home. Not sure how you can get in touch with them. I'm sure Glasgow City Council could assist on the information we need.

Kind Regards

Hi Sam.

Can you to look at this, this building reminds me of the home I was in the 70s. I'm shocked that Glasgow Council don't have the records of my residential home.

Based on available records, Craig House in Ayrshire, Scotland, was used as a residential school and home for children, including during the 1960s and 1970s. It served as a residential school for boys during this period. The name above was changed to Castle Craig after closure.

Hi Sam

Just another bit of information I broke my arm during the period when I was in the home. I thinking surely medical records would show this.

Kind Regards

Hi Sam

Drummore primary school was in Drumchapel and is still opened till this day it was for kids with disabilities.

Dumfries could've been where the home was but not 100% sure.

Hope this clarifies with the information above.

Hi Andrew,

I am just re-sending the Data Subject requests now with the updated information you have provided me with regarding your schooling.

From what I can find online Drummore primary school was in Dumfries and Galloway, do you remember if this was the case? If so, that may explain why the search returned no records as we were mainly searching in the Glasgow area initially.

Kind regards,
Sam Morris

Hi Sam

Just to confirm the schools I went to. Firstly when I started my school education Cleddans primary was my first school then got moved to Drummore primary I think I was there when I was 7/8 years old then was sent to residential home. I think I would've been about 12/13 when I left the home and went back to Cleddans primary school for 1 year then attended high school Kingsridge secondary. They must be a gap for at least 3 years of me being missing.

I may have this wrong but Dumfries and Galloway rings a bell unsure of the name of the home.

Hope this information helps to find myself.

Kind Regards
Andrew Clark

Hi Andrew,

We have received all the replies from the data subject requests we sent on your behalf , however, unfortunately none of the records contain any evidence.

Is there any more information you could give us about Castle Craig ? Was it known by any other names ? Which area of Scotland specifically was it located in ?

These bits of information may be key in helping us find evidence for your case as there may be councils or authorities that hold your records that we haven't sent requests to yet.

If you have any additional information on Castlecraig that you can share with us, then we will send any additional DSAR's to relevant authorities and await the evidence.

If you do not have any additional information on Castle Craig then I will give you a call this afternoon for a final run through with your for your case based on everything we do have for your case and we can get the application submitted.

Kind regards,
Sam Morris
