Your Postal Vote for UK Parliamentary elections has now expired

Dear David Hughes

I refer to correspondence issued to you explaining that your postal vote for UK Parliamentary elections would expire on 31 January 2026. As you have not reapplied by the statutory deadline your postal vote for UK Parliamentary elections has been cancelled.

Ignore this letter if you have applied in the last 7 days, or we have been in touch about your application. If your recent application has not been confirmed within 14 days, please get in touch with our office. You will only be able to vote in person at your designated polling station at UK Parliamentary elections unless you decide to apply for a new postal vote or appoint a proxy.
