Dear Sir/Madam

Benefit / Reduction in respect of:

Notification of Housing Benefit

Your benefit has been reassessed because the DWP has advised us the amount of a state benefit you receive has changed but this has not changed the amount of benefit you are entitled to, which remains as follows:

From 27/03/2025 to 31/03/2025 your Housing Benefit is £83.53 per week.

From 01/04/2025 to 09/04/2025 your Housing Benefit is £87.27 per week.

Housing Benefit Payment Details

Payments will be sent direct to Melville Housing Association. Your benefit will be paid 4 weekly in arrears by BACS.

The government's rules for Housing Benefit allow the Council to claim back overpaid Housing Benefit from the person it was paid to. So if that person is a landlord, I can recover overpaid benefit for one tenant by making deductions from the benefit of a different tenant. I will only do this if I cannot recover it by reducing benefit for the person whose benefit was overpaid.

It may sometimes happen that I have to recover an overpayment of someone else's benefit by making deductions from your benefit that I pay to your landlord. If I do this, the law says that your own Housing Benefit and tenancy will not be affected by this action. Your landlord cannot treat deductions relating to another tenant as arrears of your rent.

Notification of Council Tax Reduction

I have worked out your council tax support again because the DWP has advised us the amount of a state benefit you receive has changed. However this has not changed your
