Dear Rebekah

SUBJECT ACCESS REQUEST

I am writing to you regarding your email dated 09 December 2025, making a request for personal information on behalf of your client, Mr David Condron.

The Scottish Government do not hold all files in relation to all schools and residential homes and as a result of our searches, I can confirm that we have been unable to locate any documentation based on the information you have provided.

I appreciate that this will be disappointing for your client. However, National Records Scotland will respond to you directly to inform you of the results of the search of their records and may be also in the position to provide details of other public bodies who may hold information relating to your request.

If you are not happy with this outcome and wish to make a complaint, please contact the Scottish Government's Data Protection Officer in the first instance

Dear Rebekah

SUBJECT ACCESS REQUEST

I refer to your email to the Scottish Government requesting a search of records in relation to your client, Mr David Condron.

Thank you for providing the request ID to progress this request.

I have arranged for the ID to be passed to the National Records of Scotland as the custodians of public records to conduct a search of the archives. You should expect to receive a separate response from NRS in due course.

In the meantime, we will instruct of records held by the Directorate of Children and Families for any information in relation to your client.

All personal information will be accessible to you unless that information is covered by an exemption under data protection laws. In carrying out your request information will be shared with relevant business areas where necessary to ensure a complete return.

The one calendar month period allowed for response to your request will expire on 13 February 2026.

Kind Regards

Rebecca

Dear Sirs

SUBJECT ACCESS REQUEST

I refer to your email to National Records Scotland requesting a search of records in relation to your client, Mr David Condron.

NRS have passed your request to the Information Assurance and Data Protection team at the Scottish Government to enable a search of records held by the Directorate for Children and Families to be conducted.

In order for us to proceed with your request, we require proof of your client's identity, for example a copy or scan of your client's passport, driving licence or other photo ID card.

Please return this to dpa@gov.scot. Your request will be closed in 40 days if we do not receive this proof of identity.

The one calendar month period allowed for response to your request will continue on receipt of this information.

Kind Regards

Rebecca
