It was very difficult to conduct the alcohol 1:1. Christopher appears to have the primary delusion of grandeur that he is the Prime Minister. This statement was verbalised out with the context of the conversation being held. As the statement was not understood, an attempt was made to rationalise this statement. He was asked if he believed that he was the Prime Minister. He then said that he was definitely going to become the Prime Minister. When asked how he would go about becoming the Prime Minister, his mood altered and he became aggressive in his tone of voice and mannerisms. He said: "I will kidnap the current Prime Minister and get my point across, and then people will vote for me". As his apparent delusion did not appear to be a physical impossibility, an attempt was made to guide him through a more legitimate way of working towards becoming the Prime Minister through the Parliamentary system, and a system of goal setting and goal achievement. However his mood did not ease and he was insistent that he would become the Prime Minister. He did not appear to want to discuss the suggestion that was provided and simply reaffirmed his belief that he would become the Prime Minister. He was asked if there was something wrong with him and if he would like to end the session. His reaction to this was a change in mannerism. He became respectful and said that he was sorry but he did not remember to bring his open learning pack to the session because he lost it. He was informed that it was not a problem if he lost it, because it would be very easy to issue him with another pack. However, it appeared very strange how his mood suddenly changed from aggressive to non-aggressive and respectful in such a short time as though the previous conversation did not happen. He went on to mention that he would fill out his open learning pack and tailor his answers around the use of alcohol. The discussion moved on and Christopher said that he was supposed to go to Friarton today but was refused. He said this was due to the fact that he had recently had a meeting with the Governor, and said that she should not sit with her legs open. However he is also aware that his drinking does not have to result in any of the negative aspects if he learns to control his drinking. Christopher was keen to explore methods of limiting his alcohol use so that he is able to experience the good without necessarily having to experience the bad. It would appear that Christopher prefers the goal of controlled drinking as opposed to abstinence. Future work will attempt to develop coping mechanisms to allow Christopher to set himself a safe drinking limit without giving in to the temptation to drink more. Christopher expressed his keenness to start the smoking cessation group. He will be included in the next group available for Monro 2 TBA. O.L.P. Christopher completed the first part of his open learning pack. He said that before his prison sentence he was in denial about his alcohol problem. He said that he used to make sure that there was enough alcohol left in the fridge for the morning after a heavy drinking session. He said that he used to pretend that he was keeping the alcohol for watching the football, and would convince himself that this was true. However he would always drink it as soon as he woke up, and when it was finished would often go to the shop to buy more. According to Christopher alcoholism has affected his relationships in a negative way. He said that he is ashamed of the way he has treated his parents and family when drinking. He also said that it was a strain on his relationship with his girlfriend. According to Christopher, alcohol made it too easy to sleep with other women when he was going out with his girlfriend. Christopher said that he wishes he had met his girlfriend when he was older and more mature. His girlfriend is now his ex, and has had his child. He is enjoying bonding visits with his child. However his ex girlfriend appears to be the cause of anxiety, as Christopher does not know how the relationship stands. His girlfriend is saying that the relationship is over, but Christopher is not sure if everything is as simple as that. Regardless of the situation with his ex girlfriend, Christopher said that he will be happy to support his child as a father regardless of his marital status, and wants to stay sober for his daughter.

However Christopher had valid reasons for non attendance, and said that he is still highly motivated to address his drinking problem. He expressed a wish to be transferred to Monro 3 (Addiction Support Unit), but is at present unsure. However he is keen to undertake more groupwork and this is the reason behind his transfer request. This issue will be discussed at his next appointment as he has been given some time to think it over. He is keen to continue with the service.

At initial stages Christopher appeared to be highly motivated and keen to go ahead with the alcohol 1:1 that was scheduled. Throughout the initial stage of the alcohol 1:1 Christopher was upbeat and pleasant, but also appeared to be anxious and not entirely at ease with himself. However as the session progressed it became clear that Christopher was not acting appropriately. He appears to have suffered a reduction in mental health since his last appointment and was displaying what appeared to be a disturbance of affect as he would move suddenly between emotional states. It was very difficult to conduct the alcohol 1:1. Christopher appears to have the primary delusion of grandeur that he is the Prime Minister. This statement was verbalised out with the context of the conversation being held. As the statement was not understood, an attempt was made to rationalise this statement. He was asked if he believed that he was the Prime Minister. He then said that he was definitely going to become the Prime Minister. When asked how he would go about becoming the Prime Minister, his mood altered and he became aggressive in his tone of voice and mannerisms. He said: "I will kidnap the current Prime Minister and get my point across, and then people will vote for me". As his apparent delusion did not appear to be a physical impossibility, an attempt was made to guide him through a more legitimate way of working towards becoming the Prime Minister through the Parliamentary system, and a system of goal setting and goal achievement. However his mood did not ease and he was insistent that he would become the Prime Minister. He did not appear to want to discuss the suggestion that was provided and simply reaffirmed his belief that he would become the Prime Minister. After this reaction it was decided to avoid any more discussion around this topic. An attempt was then made to re-analyse his thoughts about alcohol and his intentions regarding his addiction in the future.
