Good afternoon

I am emailing with respect to your subject access request on behalf of your client Andrew Joseph Murray which we received on 15 December 2025.

I can advise that our response to this request is now ready, and I will shortly send this to you via Egress, a system used by Perth and Kinross Council to send files confidentially. To view files sent using Egress you will need to create a free Egress account; there will be further instructions on how to do this in the initial email you receive.

Please note, our Egress emails can sometimes be mistaken for spam. Therefore, if you do not appear to receive our emails, please check your spam/junk folder in the first instance.

If you have any difficulty accessing the Egress email, which I will send now, please do not hesitate to get back in touch to let me know.

Kind regards,
