Application to court

In addition to your right to complain to the DPO and/or the Information Commissioner, you can apply to court for it to determine whether the Council has, in the way that it has handled or responded to your request, has infringed your right of access. If the court decides that the Council has done so, it may order it, in order to ensure that it does comply with your right, to

- take steps specified in the order or
- refrain from taking steps specified in the order.

You should take your own independent legal advice about going to court.

Yours sincerely

Wendy Cranston
Team Leader (Performance, Governance and Planning)
