Good morning,

I am getting in touch regarding the subject access request submitted on behalf of your client Edward Burnett.

After searching through our electronic and paper archives, I cannot locate any information for your client.

I note from your request that you have listed the care institutions as the schools your client attended. These would not be considered as somewhere you are placed in care by a local authority.

Are you able to provide any further information regarding your client's time in care, such as the name of any children's homes attended or the names/address of any foster carers?

Kind regards,

Ross Fairfield
