Dear Michelle

Request for access to records
Your client: Joanne McKenna

I refer to your request for access to Social Work records made on

I can now enclose a copy of the information requested. Please note that where necessary to apply some redactions. This is in line with data protection legislation which prevents the sharing of personal information with third parties and the local authority has towards those who engage with their services. Consideration has been given to the rights and freedoms of the relevant parties. The redactions do not obscure your client's personal details around any engagement with Social Work Services.

The redactions are predominately applied to information concerning third parties, such as family members and peers. Signatures have also been redacted for security. The names of some peers, non-case holding staff below the council and not understood to be Social Work, Education or Health have also been redacted as they would not expect their personal information to be shared in this way.

An apology is offered for the delay in providing this information. We are currently dealing with a backlog of requests.

I hope you find the information useful.
