Dear Sirs

SUBJECT ACCESS REQUEST

I am writing to you regarding your letter dated 11 December 2025, making a request for personal information on behalf of your client, William John Reid.

The Scottish Government do not hold all files in relation to all schools and residential homes and as a result of our searches, I can confirm that we have been unable to locate any documentation based on the information you have provided.

I appreciate that this will be disappointing for your client. However, National Records Scotland will respond to you directly to inform you of the results of the search of their records and may be also in the position to provide details of other public bodies who may hold information relating to your request.

If you are not happy with this outcome and wish to make a complaint, please contact the Scottish Government's Data Protection Officer in the first instance

Dear Sirs

SUBJECT ACCESS REQUEST

I refer to your letter to the Scottish Government requesting a search of records in relation to your client, William John Reid.

National Records of Scotland (NRS) have also passed your request to SG under the reference NRS-DP-2025-1162. You should expect to receive a separate response from NRS in due course. In the meantime, we will instruct of records held by the Directorate of Children and families for any information in relation to you.

All personal information will be accessible to you unless that information is covered by an exemption under data protection laws. In carrying out your request information will be shared with relevant business areas where necessary to ensure a complete return.

The one calendar month period allowed for response to your request will expire on 11 January 2026.

Yours faithfully

Eva
