

Subject Access - Response

Our reference: SAR-25-9425

Your reference: Michelle Sherratt

Data Subject: Trevor Brian TRUEMAN. DOB 03/06/1979

Date: 01 February 2026

Your recent subject access request (SAR) has been assessed in terms of Article 15 of the General Data Protection Regulation and/ or section 45 of the Data Protection Act 2018.

Your request is replicated below, together with our response.

Question

Our client, is placing a claim under the Scottish Redress for Historical Abuse. He says he was taken into custody, following an altercation at High Trees Children's Home Closeburn. Circa 1993-95. He was aged 14/15. He mentions Dumfries Constabulary. I would be most grateful, if you could forward any information on that incident. I have authorisation mandates which authorise us, to act of his behalf.

Response

I can confirm that from the information you have provided, numerous searches of various Police Systems have been undertaken. However, due to the passage of time and in line with our Record Retention policy, I can confirm there was no trace of the incident described.

Should you require any further assistance concerning this request, please email dataprotectionssubjectaccess@scotland.police.uk quoting the reference above.

Our Privacy Notices and Record Retention procedure set out how your personal data is being processed and how long it will be retained.

You have a right to request that Police Scotland rectify, erase or restrict the processing of your personal data. Further information and an application form is available online.

OFFICIAL

If you are dissatisfied with this response, you may wish to contact the Information Commissioner online, by email or by letter (Customer Contact, Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, SK9 5AF).

Where we have refused to provide law enforcement data, you can also, in terms of section 167 of the Act, apply to a court to investigate any alleged infringement of your rights.

Every effort has been taken to ensure our response is as accessible as possible.

If you require this response to be provided in an alternative format, please let us know.