Dear Ms Reddick,

Re: Mark Johnston, 171 Glamis Road, Kirkcaldy.
DOB: 20/06/1982

Thank you for your letter on Mark and thank you for discussing him with me (02/10/2013). As I said to you over the phone Mark has Ankylosing Spondylitis which causes him fairly constant pain and which is exacerbated on movement or lifting. After discussing the options available with you it sounds as if that there is nothing available for Community Service where I can guarantee his health would not be made worse and I am not sure that he would even be fit for the lightest work available.

I hope this is useful, if you need more information please get back to me.

Yours sincerely,

REPORT REQUEST FOR 14 FEBRUARY 2013

Mr Johnston appeared before this Court on 6 February 2013 for a Review of the Community Payback Order he is subject to and on other matters. I provided a Community Payback Order Progress Report for this appearance. I understand the Court further continued the case until today's date to address other outstanding matters.

I subsequently received a request for a Community Payback Order Review Report for today's Court. I have seen Mr Johnston on just one further occasion since he last appeared before the Court on 6 February 2013 and have no material changes to make to the Report I submitted for that appearance, save that it is my understanding that at Court on 4 and 6 February 2013 several outstanding matters resulted in no proceedings.

Yours faithfully

5(a) Offending analysis - current

Analysis of current offence(s)

Context:

Mr Johnston reported that around one week after he had bail conditions imposed he received a 'blank text' from his ex partner, Ms Phimister. He stated that she suffered from poor health and he was concerned that there may have been a problem with his daughter. He stated that he made the decision to visit her home 'to see what was happening'. He stated that when he arrived at her house her neighbour answered the door, telling him to leave. He stated that he then phoned the police as he was concerned about who was in the house with his daughter.

What is the level of responsibility for the offence?

Mr Johnston accepted that he should not have visited the house.

What is the level of planning?

Mr Johnston was adamant that he was not deliberately breaching his bail conditions but stated that he wanted to check on his ex partner and daughter.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE SOCIAL WORK REPORT

What is the individual's attitude and insight into the offence(s)?

Mr Johnston reported that he was upset with his ex partner as she made 'made up' an allegation that he had assaulted her. However he stated that his visit was not made in anger but out of concern. He stated that he phoned the police after the incident, stating that this was perhaps done out of anger, as she had people in her home.

What is the level of recognition by the offender on the impact/consequences of the offence(s) on the victim/community?

Mr Johnston struggled to see Ms Phimister as the victim, given his assertion that she had lied to police about an alleged assault

5(b) Offending Analysis – Previous offending

What is the pattern/history of previous offending?

Please refer to risk assessment.

6. Personal and Social Circumstances Relevant to Offending Behaviour and Sentencing

Accommodation

Mr Johnston advised that he lives alone in a council tenancy, having been at the property for the past 18 months.

Significant Relationships/Background

Mr Johnston advised that he has four children in total. He reported that he has a son aged nine and a daughter aged 3 from a previous relationship. Mr Johnston stated that he is not the biological father of his son but has been involved in his care since he was a young child. Mr Johnston also advised that he has a son aged 2 from another relationship, however he reported that he has no contact with him. He reported that he formed another relationship and has a one year old daughter. This relationship ended and Mr Johnston is to appear in November for an alleged assault against his ex partner. He stated that he was not seeing her currently but was going to court to allow access.

Mr Johnston stated that he has unsupervised contact with his two year old daughter 3 times per week. Consultation has taken place with Ms Gallagher (allocated Children and Families Social Worker)

She stated that Mr Johnston had regular contact with his daughter. She stated that the plan was for Mr Johnston having regular contact. Ms Gallagher also discussed Mr Johnston's relationships with his ex partners,

CRIMINAL JUSTICE SOCIAL WORK REPORT

Mr Johnston stated that he has limited contact with his father who lives in England and mother who lives in Cyprus. He described close relationships with his grandmother and sister who live locally.

Training/Education/Employment

Mr Johnston advised that he was educated in mainstream school up until primary four and then moved to residential school. He advised that he was then educated in Melville House (off-campus educational establishment) until he left at the age of sixteen. He reported that he worked as a semi-skilled labourer for six years and has worked in a bakery, as a joiner and in a local night-club. He stated that his past period of employment ended around two years ago and he had been unemployed since this time.

Financial Circumstances

Mr Johnston advised that he was released from custody on 12 September and had made a claim for ESA. He stated that he was still waiting for the claim to be processed.

Health

Mr Johnston reported previous problems with his mental health but stated that he was currently well in this regard. He stated that his physical health was more problematic and described being on medication for arthritis in his spine. He reported regular injections to control that pain and daily doses of pain relief and anti inflammatory medication. He reported that some days his movement was very limited.

Discussion took place with his GP, Dr McGloane, who confirmed Mr Johnston's health problems, stating that he suffered from severe spondylosis in his spine. He stated that he was undergoing treatment but it could be months before progress would be made. He described Mr Johnston suffering severe pain and stated that he was 'unable to lift anything heavier than a dinner plate' as a result of the condition. Should he exert himself further that this permanent damage could be caused.

Drugs/Alcohol use

Mr Johnston described a ten year addiction to Heroin. He stated that he was on a methadone script for two and a half years but came off the script around three years ago. He stated that he was 'struck off' his prescription and 'had not touched anything since', reporting that he has remained drug free from this time. He described occasional alcohol use but reported that this was not problematic.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE SOCIAL WORK REPORT

8. Review of Relevant Sentencing Options

Custody

There is nothing to suggest that Mr Johnston would be vulnerable within a custodial setting, however it may impact negatively on his two children with whom he has contact with.

Community Payback Order

Mr Johnston appears for a breach of bail, and has no history of domestic assault convictions against previous partners. However he does have domestic offences in his history committed against three different partners and the Children and Family Social Work Service indicated that there was evidence to suggest a pattern of violent behaviour.

Mr Johnston was placed on supervision in July 2012. From discussion with David Bell, supervisor, it would seem that Mr Johnston's issues regarding his children and the children and families service took up much of his time during the order. As such it may be that Mr Johnston would benefit from a further attempt to address his offending behaviour.

If the Court feel that statutory intervention is necessary to best reduce the risk of re-offending, the following risk management plan could be introduced under a Supervision Requirement:

- Identify and address issues with anger management and poor impulse control with the Supervising Officer and any appropriate counselling services.
- Address insight into offending behaviour
- Address poor decision making skills
- Address the consequences of offending behaviour on victims and the community

Domestic Abuse Group

If a Supervision Requirement were to be imposed, the Court may also wish to impose the Requirement of attendance on the Domestic Abuse Group-work Programme which runs over a 20 week period. The programme would offer Mr Johnston the opportunity to examine his behaviour, the effects of his behaviour and his levels of responsibility in relation to his offending. This would require a 2 Year Order.

Unpaid Work

Mr Johnston provided a medical certificate to say he was unfit for work until 12 November 2013. Discussion also took place with his GP who informed that Mr Johnston was currently unfit for unpaid work. He stated that he was receiving treatment however it may be some months before much improvement would be noted.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE SOCIAL WORK REPORT

Monetary Penalty

Should the Court deem this an appropriate disposal, Mr Johnston has consented to a financial penalty at the rate of £10.00 per fortnight.

Restriction of Liberty Order

Mr Johnston gave his consent to a ROLO being imposed.

Deferred Sentence

The Court may wish to defer sentence to determine the outcome of the outstanding assault matter. He is next to appear on 15 November 2013.

9. Conclusion

Mr Johnston appears in Court for breaching his bail conditions.

The bail conditions related to an alleged assault to injury, for which he is appearing for an ID on 15 November 2013. Mr Johnston has 7 matters in his history as an adult dating from 2002.

Domestic incidents are evident in three separate relationships although he has never been convicted of assaulting any of his partners.

Given the pending alleged assault matter I would ask the Court to consider deferring sentence on today's matter to run alongside the assault charge. Should Mr Johnston be convicted of the assault then a Community Payback Order with supervision could then be given consideration at that time.

COMMUNITY PAYBACK ORDER - PROGRESS REPORT

This Report is supplementary and should be read in conjunction with the full Criminal Justice Social Work Report prepared for Mr Johnston's original sentencing appearance on 3 July 2012 and with Community Payback Order Progress Reports submitted for appearances on 3 October 2012, 28 November 2012 and 6 February 2013. On the latter date matters were continued further until today for an updated report.

1. INTRODUCTION

At the time of the last Court Review on 6 February 2013 I had no concerns to report with regard to Mr Johnston's compliance or level of engagement with me. A number of outstanding matters were set to be addressed at Court, the outcome of which was likely to inform both the future planning for his children as well as the focus of my involvement with him.

2. FREQUENCY OF ATTENDANCE

Mr Johnston continued to be seen on a fortnightly basis until 5 March 2013 when appointments were reduced to every 3 weeks. During the period covered by this Review I had 4 planned contacts with Mr Johnston, all of which were kept. In addition to the foregoing I had a further 6 contacts with him through my attendance of multi-disciplinary meetings held by the Social Work Service Children and Families Team to address the welfare of his children and shared care and contact arrangements between their respective mothers and himself.

3. PROGRESS IN MEETING REQUIREMENTS

Supervision Requirement

Mr Johnston had several trial matters calling at Court in February 2013 and he was found to have no case to answer for in all but one, the latter which related to a public disorder incident committed in September 2012. Sentence was deferred on the foregoing until 14 March 2013 for a Restriction of Liberty Order Assessment and on that date a 4 month Restriction of Liberty Order was made (8pm until 7am).

Mr Johnston has continued to engage well during supervision and is acutely aware that any misconduct on his part could seriously jeopardise his plans to secure the long term care of his infant daughter Courtney and unsupervised contact with his other infant daughter Demi, [REDACTED]. The situation remains relatively unchanged from my last report. Mr Johnston has had the length of his unsupervised contacts with Courtney increased, but much to his consternation, plans to have her for overnight contacts remain on hold at this time.

[REDACTED] Mr Johnston requested a Children's Hearing Review to address his request to have overnight contacts with Courtney. A Review Hearing was held on 15 May 2013, but no changes were made to existing requirements with Mr Johnston and his ex-partner being directed to organise shared contact arrangements with Courtney between themselves. It is Mr Johnston's intention to lodge an appeal in pursuance of overnight contacts with Courtney.

As regards unsupervised contacts with his infant daughter Demi, this situation had been observed by all involved to be going particularly well, but broke down recently. Mr Johnston's had hoped to resolve matters and to have regular unsupervised contacts restored, but his endeavours have been unsuccessful and as a consequence he plans to secure formal contact arrangements.

As this report reflects, issues regarding the future care and welfare of Mr Johnston's children continue to predominate contacts I have had with him. That said, with the bulk of the work to be undertaken with him having been completed, supervision is serving a mainly ongoing monitoring function.

4. CONCLUSION

At this time I have no concerns to report with regard to Mr Johnston's compliance or level of engagement with me and as far as I am aware there are no outstanding or pending matters. It is fully expected that Mr Johnston will complete the Order successfully when it expires on 2 July 2013.

RESTRICTION OF LIBERTY ORDER ASSESSMENT

On 14 February 2013 Mr Johnston appeared before the Court for a scheduled Court Review of the current Community Payback Order he is the subject of. That same day the matters libelled at the head of this report were also addressed and the case was continued until today's date for a Restriction of Liberty Order Assessment.

REPORT

Mr Johnston was interviewed by me in relation to this report at the Criminal Justice Office on 5 March 2013. At this interview the conditions and requirements a Restriction of Liberty Order would place on him were explained to him in detail and he was provided with an explanatory leaflet. Mr Johnston has given his informed consent to being made subject to such an Order.

Mr Johnston has regular weekday and weekend commitments during daytime hours in relation to contact arrangements with 2 of his infant children. He also has occasional overnight contacts. He has periodic meetings with the Social Work Service Children and Families Team and is required to be available to attend Children's Hearings. In addition to the foregoing he has contact every 3 weeks with me for supervision in respect of a Community Payback Order he is the subject of. Mr Johnston is also required to attend periodic appointments with his GP practice and for outpatient clinic appointments at the Victoria Hospital in Kirkcaldy for ongoing health issues. In view of the foregoing daytime restrictions would present real difficulties.

As far as I have been able to ascertain there are no known impediments to Mr Johnston being subject to evening / overnight restrictions.

It is anticipated that Mr Johnston will successfully complete the Community Payback Order he is the subject of on 2 July 2013.

Information for Electronic Monitoring Operator - Mr Johnston has a GP appointment on Friday 15 March 2013 at 10.30am. In the event his electronic tag has not been fitted by then, he anticipates being absent from his home address at least until 12 noon, taking account of possible unexpected delays at his GP practice.

COMMUNITY PAYBACK ORDER - PROGRESS REPORT

This Report is supplementary and should be read in conjunction with the full Criminal Justice Social Work Report prepared for Mr Johnston's original sentencing appearance on 3 July 2012 and with Community Payback Order Progress Reports submitted for appearances on 3 October 2012 and 28 November 2012.

1. INTRODUCTION

The last Court Review of the Community Payback Order was originally scheduled for 3 October 2012. However as Mr Johnston had been remanded on 13 September 2012 on new matters and later released on bail on 17 October 2012 the Review of the Community Payback Order was continued on several occasions being finally heard on 28 November 2012. On the latter date the Court set today's date for a further Review.

2. FREQUENCY OF ATTENDANCE

Since the case was last addressed at Court on 28 November 2012, of the 5 planned formal contacts with Mr Johnston, he has been seen on 3 occasions. On 5 December 2012 he missed a pre-arranged appointment by reason of ill health. On 13 December 2012 he missed a further pre-arranged appointment by reason of being required to attend the Cardiology Unit at Kirkcaldy Victoria Hospital.

3. PROGRESS IN MEETING REQUIREMENTS

Supervision Requirement

As indicated in my previous report Mr Johnston has contact arrangements with 2 daughters [REDACTED] from previous partners. There is an older male child [REDACTED], who is not related to Mr Johnston. Ongoing concerns and complex issues surrounding the care and welfare of the children have resulted in substantial multi-agency involvements with Mr Johnston, the children's respective mothers / current carers, and the children themselves. The foregoing has required me to attend regular multi - agency meetings to address the care and welfare of the children, as well as formulate plans for their longer term needs.

Mr Johnston is currently having supervised home contacts with his daughter [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

In my last report I made reference to various health issues Mr Johnston was presenting with. He was relieved to learn recently that he has no cardiovascular issues, but has been diagnosed with Sciatica. The recent cold damp weather has aggravated his symptoms of arthritic joint and muscular pain, contributing on occasion to him being in considerable discomfort and low mood.

4. CONCLUSION

At this time I have no concerns to report with regard to Mr Johnston's compliance or level of engagement with me. As indicated earlier, there are a number of outstanding matters set to be addressed by the Court, the outcome of which will likely inform both the future planning for his children as well as the focus of my involvement with him.

This Report is supplementary and should be read in conjunction with the full Criminal Justice Social Work Report prepared for Mr Johnston's original sentencing appearance on 3 July 2012 and with a Community Payback Order Progress Report submitted for an appearance on 3 October 2012.

1. INTRODUCTION

At the time of submitting the Community Payback Order Progress Report for a scheduled appearance by Mr Johnston on 3 October 2012, he had earlier been remanded on 13 September 2012 on new matters. Mr Johnston was released on bail following an appearance before this Court on 17 October 2012. The Court Review of the Community Payback Order originally scheduled for 3 October 2012 was continued firstly until 17 October 2012, then 22 October 2012, when it was further continued until today.

2. FREQUENCY OF ATTENDANCE

Since his release from remand on 17 October 2012, of the four planned formal contacts with Mr Johnston, he was seen on 3 occasions. On 26 October 2012, by reason of a various health issues he reported he was encountering at that time (arthritic type pain, palpitations and stress and anxiety), I visited him at his home address. He was unavailable for office interview on 2 November 2012 by reason of having an appointment with a Safeguarder appointed by a Children's Hearing in respect of his 2 year old daughter Courtney. He has been seen for office interview on 2 further occasions since, 7 and 21 November 2012.

3. PROGRESS IN MEETING REQUIREMENTS

Supervision Requirement

The bulk of my involvement with Mr Johnston since the Community Payback Order was made has centred around childcare matters in relation to custody / contact arrangements Mr Johnston has with his 2 children produced from previous relationships and the foregoing matters continue to dominate discussions conducted with him.

Since the report I submitted on 3 October 2012, following the circumstances of his remand on 13 September 2012, Mr Johnston had his daughter Courtney removed from his care and has had restrictions imposed in relation to his contact with her. Restrictions in relation to his contact with his 3 month old daughter Demi were only recently relaxed. There remains considerable multi-agency involvement with Mr Johnston, the children and their carers. Mr Johnston is seeking to have full custody of Courtney restored, as well as maintain regular unrestricted contact with his daughter Demi. His relationship with the Social Work Service Children & Families Team could best be described as strained at this time.

By reason of ill health in form of Spondylitis Mr Johnston has currently been declared unfit for work by his GP and is in receipt of Employment Support Allowance. He also reports he has a Cardiology Clinic appointment on 11 December 2012.

4. CONCLUSION

Although Mr Johnston continues to engage appropriately with me, matters relating to the care and welfare of his daughters have tended to dominate recent supervision sessions conducted with him. The foregoing matters have overshadowed the other areas of work being addressed with him and seem likely to do so for the foreseeable future. As indicated at the front of this report Mr Johnston has Intermediate Diets calling in January 2013 with corresponding Trial Diets set for February 2013.

COMMUNITY PAYBACK ORDER - PROGRESS REPORT

This Report is supplementary and should be read in conjunction with the full Criminal Justice Social Work Report prepared for Mr Johnston's original sentencing appearance on 3 July 2012.

1. BACKGROUND TO ORDER

Mr Johnston appeared before the Court for sentencing on 3 July 2012 in relation to a complaint of Theft by Housebreaking (Domestic) committed on 12 July 2011. He was placed on the current Community Payback Order with an additional requirement to attend periodic Court Reviews of the Order, the first being today.

2. FREQUENCY OF ATTENDANCE

Following the imposition of the Community Payback Order Mr Johnston reported direct from Court to the Community Payback Team office where an initial interview was conducted with him by Odette McGuinness, Social Work Assistant. At this interview the conditions and requirements of the Order were explained to him. I was subsequently assigned as Mr Johnston's Supervising Officer.

Mr Johnston was unavailable to report for his next scheduled supervision appointment on 10 July 2012 by reason of being required to attend a Children's Hearing in respect of his 23 month old daughter Courtney. My first contact with Mr Johnston was on 17 July 2012. At this interview I went over with him the conditions and requirements of the Order; the disciplinary procedures laid down by National Standards; the likely content, format and frequency of supervision sessions to be conducted with him, as well as my expectations of him in terms of his compliance and level of engagement in the work to be undertaken with him.

Supervision sessions with Mr Johnston have thus far been conducted at weekly intervals. In all he has attended 8 of 10 pre-arranged appointments during the period covered by this Review. As indicated earlier, one absence was incurred by reason of him being required to attend a Children's Hearing. A further absence arose from him being required to attend Cupar Sheriff Court. More recently he has been unavailable for appointments by reason of being remanded in custody by this Court on 13 September 2012 in relation to new matters.

3. PROGRESS IN MEETING REQUIREMENTS

Supervision Requirement

Initial supervision sessions conducted with Mr Johnston were used for the purpose of familiarising myself with his background and personal circumstances. Latterly sessions conducted with him had been addressing an in depth risk assessment for the purpose of formulating a risk management plan. I had hoped to be further on in this process, however, due to childcare responsibilities Mr Johnston had, he had to bring his daughter Courtney with him to appointments on several occasions and her presence impacted on the work planned to be undertaken. Latterly appointments had been arranged with Mr Johnston to coincide with times his daughter was having contact with extended family.

There has been considerable multi-agency involvement with Mr Johnston as his daughter Courtney was [REDACTED] until a recent Children's Hearing placed her on a supervision requirement order to his home address. As a consequence of most recent events resulting in Mr Johnston being remanded on 13 September 2012 plans are in place to have this decision reversed [REDACTED]

Mr Johnston was observed to be eager to have his daughter Courtney reside with him. This required him to make significant personal adjustments to adapt to the new full-time responsibilities and demands he faced as a single parent and in establishing a home for his daughter and himself. He had been presenting as determined to demonstrate to the Social Work Service Children and Families Team, who have a responsibility to monitor Courtney's welfare, that he was a capable and caring parent. Mr Johnston openly spoke of his unhappiness with what he saw as the intrusiveness of the Children and Families Team involvement and presented as reluctant to seek support and advice from them for fear this would be interpreted as a sign of weakness.

Mr Johnston has a troubled past and for a number of years had a significant drug dependency. He reports he completely withdrew from drug use and to being drug free for some 16 months. At recent interview he asserted that he had deliberately distanced himself from former drug using acquaintances and was adamant that he would not relapse or re-offend on the basis that his involvement in any risky behaviours would seriously jeopardise his prospects of having his daughter Courtney residing with him on a permanent basis.

4. CONCLUSION

Until being remanded in custody on 13 September 2012 Mr Johnston had been engaging meaningfully in the work undertaken with him and there were no concerns with regard to his compliance with the requirements of the Order. There were however, concerns with regard to his ability to meet the considerable demands he faced looking after his daughter Courtney. As a consequence of being remanded on new matters he is not available for supervision at this time.

5(a) Offending analysis - current

Analysis of current offence(s)

Context:

Mr Johnston stated that he was informed that his ex-partner was misusing drugs whilst she was caring for their children. He reported that, in response, he kicked down his ex-partner's door in an attempt to confront her about this. Mr Johnston advised that he then decided to steal his ex-partner's computer, carrying it in a wooden drawer.

What is the level of responsibility for the offence?

Mr Johnston states that he accepts responsibility for the offence.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE SOCIAL WORK REPORT

What is the level of planning?

Mr Johnston tells me that the offence was unplanned and described his actions as "spur of the moment. However, the Court may have difficulty accepting this given his account that he planned to go to his ex-partner's property to confront her in relation to her alleged drug misuse.

What is the individual's attitude and insight into the offence(s)?

Mr Johnston reported that he was intoxicated with alcohol at the time of committing the offence, having attended a friend's funeral that day. He attributed his actions to "his head being all over the place" at the time.

Mr Johnston tells me that he was unsure as to why he stole the computer, however he reported that he may have stole it to see what information was held on his ex-partner's computer.

What is the level of recognition by the offender on the impact/consequences of the offence(s) on the victim/community?

Mr Johnston tells me that his ex-partner and children were not in the property at the time of him committing the offence. He expressed remorse in relation to stealing from his children.

5(b) Offending Analysis – Previous offending

What is the pattern/history of previous offending?

Motoring Offences x 2: Drink Driving

Crimes of Dishonesty: Theft by shoplifting

Public Order x 2: Breach of the Peace

CRIMINAL JUSTICE SOCIAL WORK REPORT

6. Personal and Social Circumstances Relevant to Offending Behaviour and Sentencing

Accommodation

Mr Johnston advised that he lives alone in a council tenancy.

Significant Relationships/Background

Mr Johnston advised that he has three children, a son aged nine and a daughter aged one from a previous relationship. Mr Johnston stated that he is not the biological father of his son but has been involved in his care since he was a young child. Mr Johnston also advised that he has a son aged one from another relationship, however he reported that he has no contact with him. Mr Johnston tells me that he has been in a relationship with his partner for the past year, however he stated that they are currently on a "break." He reported that his partner has two children, although she does not have full-time care of them. Mr Johnston advised that his partner is currently pregnant with his child.

Mr Johnston stated that he has unsupervised contact with his one year old daughter and nine year old son approximately twice per week. He advised that he is currently trying to gain the full-time care of his two children. Consultation has taken place with Ms Gallagher (allocated Children and Families Social Worker) [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] She stated that she is in the process of working with Mr Johnston on a plan of contact with the view to building this up.

Mr Johnston stated that he has limited contact with his father who lives in England and mother who lives in Cyprus. He described close relationships with his grandmother and sister who live locally.

Training/Education/Employment

Mr Johnston advised that he was educated in mainstream school up until primary four and then a residential school. He advised that he was then educated in Melville House (off-campus educational establishment) until he left at the age of sixteen.

Financial Circumstances

Mr Johnston advised that he is in receipt of Jobseekers Allowance at the rate of £90.00 per fortnight. He stated that his outgoings are approximately £60.00 per fortnight.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE SOCIAL WORK REPORT

Health

Mr Johnston stated that he was assessed by Psychiatric Services last year, following him taking up to fifty co-codamol tablets. He reported that he was not attempting to end his life but described his actions as being "spur of the moment." Mr Johnston stated that he was diagnosed with anxiety following this. He attributed his mental health at the time to withdrawing from methadone. He advised that he was prescribed medication at the time but that he has stopped taking these as his symptoms are no longer prevalent. Mr Johnston tells me that he experiences pain in his neck and knees. He advised that he has a hospital appointment in the near future and that he will be tested for possible Rheumatic Arthritis.

Leisure/Recreation

Mr Johnston advised that he is currently unemployed. He reported that he worked as a semi-skilled labourer for six years and has worked in a bakery, as a joiner and in a local night-club also.

Drugs/Alcohol use

Mr Johnston described a ten year addiction to Heroin. He stated that he was on a methadone script for two and a half years but came off the script some fourteen months ago. Mr Johnston reported that he has remained drug free throughout this period.

8. Review of Relevant Sentencing Options

Custody

There is nothing to suggest that Mr Johnston would be vulnerable within a custodial setting, however it may impact negatively on his two children with whom he has contact with.

Community Payback Order

If the Court feel that statutory intervention is necessary to best reduce the risk of re-offending, the following risk management plan could be introduced under a Supervision Requirement:

- Support Mr Johnston with abstinence from drugs.
- Identify and address issues with anger management and poor impulse control with the Supervising Officer and any appropriate counselling services.
- Address insight into offending behaviour
- Address poor decision making skills
- Address the consequences of offending behaviour on victims and the community

I have requested information from the Fife Constabulary Police Disclosure Unit with regards to previous incidents of domestic abuse / disturbances; however at the time of writing this has not been received.

Unpaid Work

Mr Johnston stated that he would consent to the imposition of an Unpaid Work Requirement; however he raised concerns about his health stating that he often experiences pain and lacks energy due to sleeping difficulties. It may be, however, that lighter duties could be imposed. In addition Mr Johnston raised concerns about being unavailable for Unpaid Work should his two children be returned to his care on a full-time basis.

Should Mr Johnston be placed on a Community Payback Order then he will be seen immediately at the local criminal justice social work office where he will be interviewed and issued with instructions for the commencement of his Order. Any such Order would also take into consideration any religious or cultural needs of Mr Johnston.

Monetary Penalty

Should the Court deem this an appropriate disposal, Mr Johnston has consented to a financial penalty at the rate of £10.00 per fortnight.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE SOCIAL WORK REPORT

Restriction of Liberty Order

Mr Johnston stated that he would consent to the necessary equipment being installed in his property "if he had to." He stated that he was reluctant to agree, however, raising concerns about being unable to leave his home if he or his children required medical attention.

Deferred Sentence

The Court may wish to consider deferring sentence to enable more time for information to be received from the Fife Constabulary Police Disclosure Unit. If a pattern of domestic abuse is identified, a referral could be made for possible inclusion on the Domestic Abuse Group-work Programme.

9. Conclusion

Mr Johnston appears before the Court today for theft by housebreaking (domestic). The Court may wish to consider deferring sentence to enable more time for information to be received from the Fife Constabulary Police Disclosure Unit. If a pattern of domestic abuse is identified, a referral could be made for possible inclusion on the Domestic Abuse Group-work Programme. Alternatively the Court may wish to consider a Supervision Requirement, whereby work surrounding domestic abuse could be undertaken on a one to one basis.

Hi Susan,

For Info

Mark phoned me this morning to advise he could not keep an 11am appointment with me today as he is required to attend the Victoria Hospital to have portable heart monitoring equipment removed. He said he had then to take Demi for immunisations. He remarked that he has a contact with Courtney later today and plans to bring Demi with him. I suggested he run this by you first, but he seemed reluctant to do so. He said that Courtney had expressed an interest in seeing Demi during earlier contacts and he could see no reason why he could not bring Demi to today's contact. He did say that he would text you to let you know about this.
