Good morning,

Thank you for your email of 15/12/25, in which you request information relating to your client's time in custody. Your request was processed as a Subject Access Request (SAR) in accordance with Section 45 of the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA).

Upon receipt of your request, SPS conducted the relevant searches of our records and I can confirm we no longer hold records containing your client's personal data relevant to your request. Our electronic prisoner records system only holds data from 1995 onwards and paper prisoner records created prior to this have been destroyed in accordance with our Prisoner Records Retention and Destruction Policy.

Some historic prison records have however over the years been transferred to the National Records of Scotland (NRS), therefore if our searches return no results we ask NRS to carry out a search of SPS records they hold on your behalf. NRS identified records controlled by SPS that might have been relevant to your client. We manually searched all 'Closed' and 'Exempt' records and I can confirm that we identified the following records which included your client's personal data:

See attached file which contains: Saughton – Register of Criminal Prisoners and their Religious Persuasions (Male) – 1974 and Saughton – Register of Criminal Prisoners and their Religious Persuasions (Male) – 1975.

If you are dissatisfied with our response you should in the first instance, contact the SPS Data Protection Officer explaining the reason(s) for the dissatisfaction:

- by letter to Data Protection Officer, SPS Headquarters, One Lochside, 1 Lochside Avenue EDINBURGH EH12 9DJ
- or by emailing dataprotectionofficer@sps.pnn.gov.uk

If you remain dissatisfied, you have the right to ask the Information Commissioner to review the application of any restriction applied by SPS or to complain to the Information Commissioner at:

- Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF

You also have the right to apply to a court where you believe there has been an infringement of your client's rights under the data protection legislation in contravention of that legislation.

Kind regards,

Adam
