From the first moment I went in I was abused by staff. I was stripped naked and humiliated, they said it was procedure. They had me standing for hours completely naked. They made me bend over and they inserted something into my rear, I think it was a finger but I am not sure.

I was then locked in a room with absolutely no amenities, no bed, no chair, no toilet or washing facilities. They made me stay in this room for about 4-5 hours completely naked. I can recall a window in the door, for the entire duration I was in the room people kept coming up to look through the window and was pointing and laughing at me, it was humiliating.

I can recall the following day I was beat by other inmates, the officers present did not intervene or attempt to stop them in anyway. I can recall one of the inmates saying to me this is what happens to you when you piss the officers off. I felt like they must have been instructed by the officers to beat me up.

When I was in my room one night, the officers came in and physically assaulted me. They slapped me, punched me, pulled my hair, and through thick hard books at me.

The last thing I can remember happening was my door being opened one day, it was unlocked by an officer. Then, two older and bigger residents came in and said they were going to rape me. When they were in the room, the door was locked behind them. I can remember fighting for my life, I took an almighty beating, I had two black eyes, broken ribs, and I couldn't move out of my bed for days. During this assault, not only did they physically beat me but they sexually assaulted me.

I did not receive any medical care following this assault. I don't remember the boys leaving the room. I believe I lost consciousness.

I was still 16 years of age and was transferred to HMP Barlinnie. This was a horrible ordeal. I was locked up for 23.5 hours every day, 7 days a week. I was made to urinate in a bowl and had no wash facilities at all.

I was put in a cell with another, much older resident, who had a nickname as the COP. This person raped me and assaulted me for the duration of my stay at HMP Barlinnie. This went on for approximately 3 months.

Not just my cell mate, but other inmates and officers, both physically and sexually assaulted me. I tried to report it countless times and I was ignored each time.

This impacted my entire life. I have had major issues with my self esteem, my personal relationships, and I have a complete lack of trust in everyone. I have constantly felt isolated my entire life.
