Providing your statement of abuse

In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

In Part 3, you need to provide a statement about your abuse. You can choose how you want to provide your statement. You can complete Q1, Q2, Q3 and Q4. Or you can:

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

There were times when I didn't eat dinner, and instead of asking why or trying to understand what was going on, they started hitting me. It wasn't just a one off incident either — they used to hit me all the time. I remember being beaten up regularly, sometimes for reasons I didn't even understand. It became something I expected, something I learned to brace myself for, even though no one should ever have to.

They would come into my room in the middle of the night and hit me while I was half asleep and completely defenceless. I never felt safe, not even when I was supposed to be resting. Nights became something I feared, because I never knew when the door would open or what mood they would be in. The unpredictability made everything worse. I lived in a constant state of tension, waiting for the next time it would happen.

They would force me to have cold showers, not as a normal routine but as a punishment. It was humiliating and shocking, and it made me feel small and powerless. It was another way they reminded me that they were in control and that I had no say in what happened to me.

It wasn't just physical abuse either. All of the staff seemed to join in, or at least stand by and allow it to happen. There was so much verbal abuse — shouting, insults, threats — and a lot of mental and emotional manipulation. They made me feel worthless, like everything was my fault, like I somehow deserved what was happening. Over time, that kind of treatment gets inside your head. It changes the way you see yourself and the world around you.
