- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

When I was placed into Darvil House Children's Home in Ayrshire, I was just a child, but I felt like I had been sentenced to prison. Every morning I would wake up in a small, bare room with nothing but a thin mattress on the floor. There were no blankets to keep me warm, no personal belongings, nothing that made it feel even slightly safe or comforting. The walls felt cold and empty, just like the way I felt inside. There was no privacy at all. I couldn't even change my clothes or sit with my thoughts without feeling exposed and watched.

Going to the toilet was one of the most humiliating parts. A staff member would stand there and watch me. I remember the shame burning through me, feeling like I wasn't even a human being deserving of dignity. I was just a child, yet I was treated like I had done something terrible, like I was dangerous. If I didn't do exactly what they told me, or if I questioned them in any way, the consequences were violent. They would batter me, beat me up without hesitation. I was left covered in bruises and sometimes with black eyes. The pain wasn't just physical; it sank deep into my mind and heart. They called me horrible names, words no child should ever hear, especially from adults who were supposed to care for me. Instead of protection, I was given fear. Instead of support, I was given neglect. I would be left alone in that room for hours, sometimes feeling like I didn't exist to anyone except as a problem to be controlled. It felt like I was being punished for something I didn't understand.

I spent three years there. Three years of waking up afraid, of going to sleep unsure of what the next day would bring. No child should ever be treated the way I was treated. We are meant to be nurtured, guided, and protected, not broken down and humiliated. Even now, the memories stay with me. The small room, the cold mattress, the shouting, the violence — they are part of my story. But what hurts the most is knowing that I was just a child who deserved care, and instead I was treated like a prisoner.
