During my time in Glenochol, it was awful; I had to march everywhere. If I left even a speck of dust, I would be slapped around. The physical abuse mainly occurred on Thursdays or Fridays. There was one officer who seemed to target me; every Thursday, he would knock over a can of polish in my room. Cleaning it up took me hours, and he was aware that inspections happened on Fridays, as if he derived some pleasure from it. I had to request permission to leave the table during meals. Showering was devoid of privacy since we shared an open shower room, and 3 or 4 of us had to go in at the same time. An officer was always present, watching me. I never dared to move in that place; it was extremely strict. I often witnessed other children being abused. I recall that my family visits were taken away because I drew a picture on the back of my jotter at school.

In Longriggend, I was forced to empty the toilet waste of other inmates, which was horrific. The showers here were also open, leaving me with no privacy whatsoever. I remember undergoing full body inspections multiple times by male officers. I spent 23 hours a day in my cell, with only 1 hour allowed to walk around inside the building. I also had to eat my meals in the cell
