During my time in foster care, it was awful. I was physically abused by my foster parent. This happened on more than one occasion. She would turn nasty without warning and start physically abusing me — hitting me, slapping me, and treating me in ways no child should ever experience. I was only a young girl, just eight years old at the time, and I remember feeling scared, confused, and completely unprotected.

She would make me take time off school and force me to clean the whole house. I was also made to look after the toddlers while she went out. It was clear she didn't care about me or the other children she was supposed to be looking after. Instead of being cared for, I was treated like someone who existed only to do chores and take on responsibilities far beyond my age.

She used to go out most weekends and would come home with random men. It never felt like a safe environment. I was only eight years old, yet she would send me to the shop late at night, making me walk a couple of miles on my own. It was frightening and completely unsafe. I remember feeling so small and vulnerable, knowing that no one was looking out for me.

I was only there for about five months, but those months had a huge negative impact on me. The physical abuse, the neglect, the unsafe situations, and the lack of care all left emotional scars that stayed with me. Even though it was a short period of time, the experiences were intense and damaging. Being treated that way at such a young age affected how I saw myself and the world around me, and the emotional effects have followed me into later life.
