My foster carer did not like me, and from the very beginning she treated me in a way that felt hostile, unkind, and deeply unfair. She would call me names and regularly pick on me, singling me out in a way that made me feel targeted and unwanted. There was another girl living with her at the time, and I was constantly aware of how differently I was treated compared to her. This difference in treatment made me feel isolated and as though I did not belong in that home.

I had no support here constantly spoken to horrible and forced to do things i didn't like ,t hey stopped my education here and she left me alone a lot of the time and spoke to me horribly , they made me miss out on school trips and i didnt enjoy my self , here i was effected mentally and depressed

The environment I lived in was not a safe or nurturing one. Instead of feeling cared for, I felt secluded and shut away. At times, I was effectively locked away from others, which made me feel trapped and powerless. I did not feel like I had any freedom or a sense of normality, and this lack of basic comfort and security had a lasting effect on me.

My foster carer spoke to me in a harsh and degrading manner. The way she communicated with me was often aggressive and dismissive, which left me feeling mentally distressed and overwhelmed. I felt constantly on edge, never knowing when I might be criticised or spoken down to again. There was no support, no kindness, and no empathy shown towards me during this time.

As a result of this treatment, my mental health suffered significantly. I felt alone, anxious, and deeply unhappy. Being in an environment where I was not supported or valued affected my confidence and sense of self-worth. Even now, I carry the impact of those experiences with me. I struggle with trust, feel anxious in situations where I fear being judged or singled out, and often relive the feelings of isolation and distress that I experienced during that time. The way I was treated has had a lasting effect on my life, shaping how I see myself and how I relate to others. Here a month i was involved with older people and left , I struggle to trust people or show emotion she a shown me tough love here and it has badly effected me , i really suffer with depression and anxiety and didnt leave the house for a year , no one helped me when i left residentail care just sent on my way , ive held back in my life due to this i have been impacted badly i was bullied
