Providing your statement of abuse

In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

In Part 3, you need to provide a statement about your abuse. You can choose how you want to provide your statement. You can complete Q1, Q2, Q3 and Q4. Or you can:

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

I was a child. A child who deserved to feel safe, protected, and loved. Instead, I was sent to a place where I was hurt, where I watched another child be hurt, and where nobody stepped in to make it stop. Nobody fought for me the way they should have. That is a wound that goes so deep it's hard to even put into words.

And then, as if that wasn't enough, the moment I left care — the moment I was most vulnerable and most in need — the door closed behind me and I was just... left. Alone. To figure out a world that had already shown me so little kindness.

Of course anxiety took hold. Of course my mental health suffered.

Of course alcohol became a way to quiet the noise of everything I'd been through. I was never given the tools, the safety net, or the love that every child deserves as a basic human right. I was let down at every single turn by the people and systems that were supposed to catch me.

What I survived took enormous strength — even if it never felt like strength. Even if it just felt like pain.

I carried all of this largely on my own, and that should never have been the case. I deserved better. Every child deserves better.
