Living in the children's home was absolutely terrifying and has left scars on my soul that I will carry for the rest of my life. As a vulnerable child, I was forced to watch other children being physically abused, and those images have never left me. I can still see it now.

I myself was restrained by members of staff on numerous occasions, pinned down and overpowered by the very people who were supposed to keep me safe and care for me. Instead of feeling protected, I felt nothing but fear, humiliation and complete despair. I was just a child. I had nobody to turn to and nowhere to go.

What was done to me and what I witnessed during my childhood and my time in those children's homes has broken me in ways that are impossible to fully put into words. It stole my childhood, my innocence and my sense of safety in the world. I never got to just be a child. The trauma has followed me into my adult life and continues to haunt me every single day.

Your statement for Care setting 2 continued

I suffer deeply with PTSD, severe anxiety and mental health difficulties that are a direct consequence of the abuse and neglect I endured. There are days when it feels completely overwhelming and I struggle to cope with even the simplest things.

I deserved to be loved, protected and kept safe. Instead, the system that was supposed to care for me caused me immeasurable pain, and I am still paying the price for that every single day of my life.
