Was only 4 years old is unsure of the name of the home was definitely in Dunoon.

I was only four years old, but my memories from that time are awful. The person who ran the place was always mean to us. She would shout at us constantly, and even at that young age I remember feeling scared and confused by how angry she always seemed. One time, she made me and the younger boys clean the potties from under the beds. When I said no, she grabbed me, threw me around, and forced my coat onto me while shoving me. I was so small, and the way she handled me made me feel frightened and completely powerless.

They made me sleep in the same room as other boys, and I remember feeling worried and uncomfortable about that. I didn't understand why I couldn't have my own space or why no one seemed to care about how unsafe I felt. Everything about that environment made me anxious, even though I was far too young to fully understand what was happening.

They would restrain us, and it always hurt. I was only a child, but they pushed and shoved us around as if we were much older. I remember the fear of being grabbed suddenly, not knowing how rough they would be or how long it would last. It made me feel constantly on edge, like I had to be careful with every move I made.

There was one time I didn't eat my meal, and because of that I wasn't allowed to leave the table. I remember sitting there for what felt like forever, feeling hungry, embarrassed, and unsure of what I had done wrong. There was never any fruit or snacks or anything like that. If we didn't want to eat the dinner they gave us, they would simply make us go without. It felt like we were being punished for having normal childhood reactions, and it created a sense of fear around something as simple as eating.

All of these experiences have stayed with me. Even though I was so young, the shouting, the rough handling, the lack of care, and the constant fear left a deep emotional impact. I didn't understand it at the time, but looking back, I can see how much it affected me. The memories are still painful, and the way I was treated has had a lasting effect on me mentally and emotionally.
