Dear

Your Claim for Damages

Thank you for instructing us to deal with your claim.

We should like to confirm the matters discussed and provide as much information as we can for you at this stage.

This letter explains the basis on which all necessary work will be carried out. Whilst that does mean writing at some length, we hope the information will be useful.

So, dealing with a number of important matters in turn:

Advice and action

From a review of the circumstances as described by you we believe that you have reasonable prospects of success and can confirm that a claim for compensation will be pursued.

People responsible for your work

The details you need to know are as follows.

1. We will regularly update you either by telephone, letter or email with progress on your matter. We will explain to you by telephone or in writing the legal work required as your matter progresses. There may be occasions whereby we suggest we meet to discuss your case. We will always try to fix meetings for the most convenient times.

2. We will communicate with you in plain language.
3. We will update you on whether the likely outcomes still justify the likely costs and risks associated with your matter whenever there is a material change in circumstances.
4. We will update you on the likely timescales for each stage of this matter and any important changes in those estimates.
5. We will continue to review whether there are alternative methods by which your matter can be funded.
6. The address for any letters you wish to send us is on this letterhead and the reference is at the head of this letter. It is helpful if you can quote this reference when writing or calling.
7. The address of the person handling your case is found at the top of our letterhead.

We try to avoid changing the people you are dealing with, but if it should seem appropriate at any stage for the matter to be referred, for all purposes, to another member of the team, we will explain why that is suggested and arrange for an introduction.

To help us keep in touch, please let me know as soon as possible if you change your address or telephone number so that we can keep our records up to date. Further, we require that;

- You provide us with clear, timely and accurate instructions.
- You provide all documentation required to complete the transaction in a timely manner.
- You will safeguard any documents that are likely to be required for discovery.

We hope this is all the information you need to ensure we are able to keep in touch with each other during this matter and in the future.

As discussed we are able to act on a conditional fee agreement basis. However it is important to let you have details, at the outset, of how costs are incurred; how those costs may be funded; any liability that might arise to pay the costs of the Opponent; and any measures that can be taken to offer protection against liability to pay the costs of the Opponent.

The main points to note on entering a conditional fee agreement would be as follows.

- (i) You only pay us a fee if you win the claim ('win' being defined by the conditions of the agreement). You would not, provided you kept to the terms of the agreement, pay a fee unless you did win the claim.
- (ii) If the claim did not succeed, you would be responsible for the cost of reports or other outlays incurred by us on your behalf (whether or not court proceedings were issued against the Opponent).

As we act on a no win no fee agreement, if you do not win, you do not pay the incurred legal costs. It is important to stress however that this does not include the incurred disbursements. In relation to the costs incurred by the opponent if you lose, their costs will not be payable unless the Court make a finding of fraud against you. This does not apply however if you fail to beat an offer of settlement made by the opponent and in most cases, the costs awarded against you would be far in excess of your compensation, leaving you with nothing.

- (iii) If you win, our costs become payable by you, calculated in the same way as on a private basis but with a success fee payable in addition. The success fee reflects the risk of us as a firm not being paid if the claim is not successful.

- (v) Disbursements to others are necessary to pursue the case; they include payments to experts or the Court. They will be payable by you when incurred as the case progresses. At this stage we are not sure as to what these outlays will be, but should the need arise we will of course discuss the cost of the same with you prior to incurring any disbursements.

- (vi) We enclose, for your information, your damaged based agreement, which you can enter into with us on the terms as set out above.

However, you do need to bear in mind that under a damaged based agreement we are effectively sharing the risks of the case with you and, of course, this gives us a say in how the case should be run. The case will be reviewed at appropriate stages (see above) and, if we do not then believe you are likely to win, we may decide to end the agreement.

Cancellation of Contract

If within 14 days of signing the damaged based agreement you wish to cancel then please return the mandate attached to the agreement.

Costs

The fees we charge are as a result of time spent on your case, we will also charge a success fee. This is payable by you. Details of the success fee can be found in the Damaged Based Agreement.

In simple terms, we agree not to charge you anything if your claim does not succeed, and you agree to be responsible for our basic fees plus a “success fee” if the claim is successful. Subject to the exceptions in the Damaged Based Agreement you should be rest assured that:

1. We will not charge you anything up front
2. Your contribution to fees will be paid from your damages when they are received
3. Our policy is to voluntarily limit your contribution towards our costs, including the success fee, so that it will be no more than 40% of your damages if you win. If you take out a policy of After the Event insurance, you will be required to pay for that policy in addition to your contribution to our fees.

We would advise that our hourly rates are as follows:

Partner/Director	£255.00 per hour + VAT
Solicitors/legal executives with 8 years post qualified experience	£255.00 per hour + VAT
Solicitors/legal executives with 4 years post qualified

experience	£218.00 per hour + VAT
Solicitors/legal executives with up to 4 years experience	£177.00 per hour + VAT
Paralegal	£126.00 per hour + VAT

Please note that our hourly charging rates increase in line with the rates issues by the court on the 1st January of each year, unless we otherwise notify you in writing. However, we will write and advise you further in this respect should this occur.

We will keep you advised as to the various stages of your claim, the costs implication and the risk to yourself, but would refer you again to the terms and conditions attached to this letter and the Conditional Fee Agreement.

Interest

We are required to pay to you a fair sum in lieu of interest on any balance we hold on your behalf in our general client account. This is calculated on the balance held over the whole period for which cleared funds are held, and is paid at a rate not less than the rate of interest payable on the relevant amount if placed on deposit on similar terms by a member of the business community at the bank where the money is held. No interest will be paid if the amount calculated on the balance held is £20 or less. Deposit interest paid to UK residents by us will be paid without deduction of tax. It is your responsibility to declare sums so received for tax purposes.

Documents

It is important that you keep all documents which relate in any way to this matter, such as letters, contracts, receipts, diaries, computer records, photographs, videos, and anything else of that kind.

Whilst we do not need to see all of those documents at this stage, such documents may have to be produced in court proceedings, and a duty is owed to the court to ensure the documents are preserved in case they should be required. Similarly, any documents you subsequently obtain which relate to the matter should also be kept. Also, if you have any other property connected with the matter in any way, you should preserve that property until the case is concluded.

We use the information you provide primarily for the provision of legal services to you and for related purposes including:

- updating and enhancing client records
- analysis to help us manage our practice
- statutory returns
- legal and regulatory compliance

Our use of that information is subject to your instructions, the Data Protection Act 1998 and our duty of confidentiality. Please note that our work for you may require us to give information to third parties such as expert witnesses and other professional advisers. You have a right of access under data protection legislation to the personal data that we hold about you.

We may from time to time send you information that we think might be of interest to you. If you do not wish to receive that information please notify our office in writing.

After completing the work, we are entitled to keep all papers and documents while there is money owing for charges and expenses. The firm keeps papers (except for any papers you ask to be returned to you) for no more than 6 years and keeps the file on the understanding that the firm has authority to destroy it after 6 years from the date of the final bill, although documents you ask to deposit in safe custody will not, of course, be destroyed.

If we take papers or documents out of storage in relation to continuing or new instructions to act for you, we will not normally charge for such retrieval.

However we may charge you both for:

- time spent producing stored papers that are requested
- reading, correspondence or other work necessary to comply with your instructions in relation to the retrieved papers

Your Responsibilities

Please note that in a claim any dishonesty or exaggeration by you or on your behalf in relation to any part of the claim will lead to the whole claim being thrown out with you being ordered to pay the other side's costs. This will happen even if you have already won your claim.

Termination

You will see that the conditions applicable to a damaged based agreement provide for termination and its consequences.

We can end the agreement if we no longer think it likely that you will win the case or if you do not keep to your responsibilities. You can end the agreement at any time.

It is particularly important to note that if you end the agreement, or we end the agreement because you have not kept to your responsibilities, you would then be responsible to pay costs, under that agreement, whether or not the matter had then reached a successful conclusion.

Complaints Procedure

At MMA Legal we are committed to providing a quality service to our clients. However, in the event that you have cause to complain we do have a written complaints procedure which is available on request. Our aim is to deal with complaints promptly, fairly and effectively.

In the event of a problem, you are entitled to complain. We would be grateful if you could please put any complaints in writing for the attention of Matt Bell. At the conclusion of our internal complaints procedure, you also have the right to complain to the Legal Ombudsman, PO Box 6806, Wolverhampton, WV1 9WJ.

You may also be entitled to object to our bill and apply to the court for an assessment of the bill under Part III of the Solicitors Act 1974.

However, if all or part of the bill remains unpaid, we may be entitled to charge interest.

What happens next?

We are pleased to note that you wish to proceed ahead and instruct us to act on your behalf.

This letter sets out our terms of business with you, and so your continuing instructions in this matter will amount to acceptance by you of the terms. We shall be grateful if you would sign and date, in the space provided, the enclosed copy letter; we can then be sure you understand, and are happy with, the basis on which the firm will act for you. We enclose a pre-paid envelope for your use.

The law requires solicitors to obtain satisfactory evidence of the identity of their clients and sometimes people related to them. This is because solicitors who deal with money and property on behalf of their client can be used by criminals wanting to launder money.

To comply with the law, we need to get evidence of your identity as soon as possible. Our practice is to obtain copies of photographic identification and proof of your address. Further details of the types of evidence we accept are attached to this letter.

If you cannot provide us with the specific identification requested, please contact us as soon as possible to discuss other ways to verify your identity.

As this letter is an important document, please keep it in a safe place for future reference.

We do hope that this letter usefully confirms the advice given and action agreed upon, as well as dealing with any immediate queries about the day-to-day handling of the matter and the firm's terms of business.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely

A. CONDITIONAL FEE AGREEMENT ('CFA')

This agreement is a binding legal contract between you and your solicitor/s. Before you sign, please read everything carefully. This agreement must be read in conjunction with the Schedules and the Law Society Conditions attached.

I/We, MMA Legal Limited (the solicitor(s))

You.....the client

What is covered by this agreement

- Your claim for damages suffered on or about the

- Any application for pre-action or non-party disclosure.
- Any appeal by your opponent.
- Any appeal you make against an interim order or an assessment of costs.
- Any proceedings you take to enforce a judgment, order or agreement.
- Negotiations about and/or a court assessment of the costs of this claim.

What is not covered by this agreement

- Any counterclaim against you.
- Any appeal you make against the final judgment or order.

Paying us if you win

If you win your claim, you pay our basic charges, our expenses and disbursements and a success fee together with the premium for any insurance you take out. You are entitled to seek recovery from your opponent of part or all of our basic charges and our expenses and disbursements, but not the success fee or any insurance premium.

The overall amount we will charge you for our basic charges, success fees, expenses and disbursements is limited as set out in Schedule 2 below.

It may be that your opponent makes a formal offer to settle your claim which you reject on our advice, and your claim for damages goes ahead to trial where you recover damages that are less than that offer. If this happens, we will not add our success fee to the basic charges for the work done after we received notice of the offer or payment. In these circumstances, you may be ordered to pay your opponent's costs, but only up to the amount of damages and interest awarded to you.

Expenses and Disbursements

If you receive interim damages, we may require you to pay our expenses and disbursements at that point and a reasonable amount for our future expenses and disbursements.

If you receive provisional damages, we are entitled to payment of our basic charges, our expenses and disbursements and success fee at that point.

If you win overall but on the way lose an interim hearing, you may be required to pay your opponent's charges of that hearing, but usually only up to the amount of damages awarded to you.

If on the way to winning or losing you are awarded any costs, by agreement or court order, then we are entitled to payment of those costs, together with a success fee on those charges if you win overall.

What do I pay if I lose?

If you lose you will normally have the benefit of Qualified One-Way Cost Shifting so the court will not usually enforce an order for costs against you, unless:

- the proceedings have been struck out; or
- the claim is fundamentally dishonest; or
- the claim includes a claim for the financial benefit of someone else.

If you lose, you do not pay our charges, but we may require you to pay our expenses and disbursements.

Success fee

The success fee is set out in Schedule 1.

Basic charges

Details of our basic charges are set out in Schedule 2.

Ending this agreement

If you have a right to cancel this agreement under Schedule 3 (see below) and do so within the 14 day time limit, you will pay nothing. Otherwise if you end this agreement before you win or lose, you pay our basic charges and expenses and disbursements. If you go on to win, you also pay a success fee.

We may end this agreement before you win or lose, with the consequences set out in the Law Society Conditions.

Other points

Definitions of words used in this CFA are explained in the Law Society Conditions. You have the right to cancel this agreement in the circumstances set out in Schedule 3.

We add VAT, at the rate that applies when the work is done, to the total of the basic charges and success fee.

You may be able to take out an insurance policy against the risk of paying expenses and disbursements (but not our charges) if you lose, or some or your entire opponent's costs even if you win. You will be responsible for paying the insurance premium for this if you win. If you lose the premium is still payable. Full details are contained in the insurance policy documents. We will give further information about insurance policies to you so that you can decide whether you wish to take one out.

The parties acknowledge and agree that this agreement is not a Contentious Business Agreement within the terms of the Solicitors Act 1974.

Schedule 1

Success Fee

The success fee is set at 100% of our basic charges, where the claim concludes at trial; or 40% where the claim concludes before a trial has commenced.

The success fee percentage reflects the following:

- (a) the fact that if you lose, we will not earn anything;
- (b) our assessment of the risks of your case;
- (c) any other appropriate matters;
- (d) the fact that if you win we will not be paid our basic charges until the end of the claim;
- (e) our arrangements with you about paying expenses and disbursements; and
- (f) the arrangements about payment of our costs if your opponent makes a Part 36 offer or payment which you reject on our advice, and your claim for damages goes ahead to trial where you recover damages that are less than that offer or payment.

The Success Fee cannot be more than 100% of the basic charges in total.

Cap on the amount of Success Fee which you will pay us in the event of Success in proceedings at first instance

There is a maximum limit on the amount of the success fee which we can recover from you.

That maximum limit is 40% of the total amount of any:

-) general damages for pain suffering and loss of amenity; and
- (i) damages for pecuniary loss, other than future pecuniary loss;

which are awarded to you in the proceedings covered by this agreement. The maximum limit is applicable to these damages net of any sums recoverable by the Compensation Recovery Unit of the Department of Work and Pensions. The maximum limit is inclusive of any VAT which is chargeable.

The maximum limit includes any success fee payable to a barrister who has a CFA with us.

However, this maximum limit applies only to a success fee for proceedings at first instance and not to a success fee on other proceedings (such as, for example, an appeal against a final judgment or order).

We will provide you with a copy of any relevant judgment or of our calculation of any settlement showing how much of your damages should be attributed to General.

Damages and Past Pecuniary Loss, net of any sums recoverable by the Compensation Recovery Unit. If you do not agree our calculation and this makes a difference to the amount of the Success Fee payable you, then we will put the matter for determination by an independent barrister of at least 10 years call, to be appointed by agreement between us or, in default of agreement, by the President of the Law Society of England and Wales, such barrister to act as expert and not as arbitrator and his decision shall be binding. The barrister's costs for assessing this issue are to be paid by you if the barrister agrees with us, but otherwise are to be paid by us.

You also have the right to apply to the court for assessment of our costs, including our success fee.

Schedule 2

Basic Charges

These are for work done from now until this agreement ends. These are subject to review.
How we calculate our basic charges

These are calculated for each hour engaged on your matter. Routine letters and telephone calls will be charged as units of one tenth of an hour. Other letters and telephone calls will be charged on a time basis. The hourly rates are:

Grade of Fee Earner

1. Solicitors with over eight years post qualification experience including at least eight years litigation experience [£255.00 an hour].
2. Solicitors and legal executives with over four years post qualification experience including at least four years litigation experience [£218.00 an hour].
3. Other solicitors and legal executives and fee earners of equivalent
