One of my parents died when I was around three years old. We were all together as a family only one time after that. From a very young age, there was a lot of abuse directed towards my siblings and myself. My siblings experienced both sexual abuse and physical abuse. I was very young at the time, but I did witness family members being abused. There were serious problems going on in the home. My sister ran away during this period, and after that the family was split up and removed from the home, which completely broke our family apart.

The effects of this abuse were lifelong, especially for my brothers. They struggled for many years, became homeless, developed drug addictions, and have since passed away. I believe what happened to us as children played a major role in how their lives ended.

After this, I was fostered by family members. My brothers were also fostered. During this time, there were no complaints.

When I was moved to Glen Avon, the building had three floors. I was placed on the middle floor. My brother was also living in Glen Avon at the time, and another brother had previously lived there on the downstairs floor. I was never told by social workers that my brother was in the same building as me, which I found very upsetting later on.

There was a temporary worker at Glen Avon who I believe was called Kenny. He would often buy me presents and treat me to things. At the time, I felt that this behaviour was strange and inappropriate.

Staff at Glen Avon used to take me into the office and make me take my clothes off so they could inspect my body. They said this was to check whether I was being bullied, but I do not believe that was the real reason. This experience made me feel extremely uncomfortable, violated, and confused.

There was no proper support available to me. I did not feel safe speaking to anyone or opening up about what was happening. I felt completely alone and unheard.

After Glen Avon, I was placed with Roslyn, who was an ex-prison officer. She treated us like prisoners. She would make us clean our rooms, and if she was not satisfied, she would destroy the room to scare us. She used intimidation and fear to control us. She would also lock us inside the house. Roslyn instructed other staff to abuse the children, and this created an environment of constant fear and punishment.

The abuse I experienced throughout my childhood has had a serious and lasting effect on my mental health. At the time, I lived in fear, confusion, and distress, without understanding that what was happening to me was abuse. As an adult, I continue to suffer from the psychological effects of these experiences. I still feel distressed when I think about what happened, and it has impacted my emotional wellbeing, sense of safety, and ability to trust others. The trauma from witnessing sexual abuse, experiencing physical and mental abuse, and having no protection or support has stayed with me into my adult life.

Name was Jim Carroll – has been convicted
