The next section asks you to write your statement of abuse.

Section 2: Your statement of abuse

Please refer to page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance when filling in this form.

Please make sure that whatever way you provide your statement, you include all the information Redress Scotland needs to make a decision. You can find out more on page 35 of “Help to apply”.

You may find that writing this brings up feelings or memories. If you need support you can speak to a case worker who can refer you to further help:

- Telephone: 0808 175 0808 (freephone)
- International: +44 131 297 6500
Lines are open Monday to Thursday, from 10am to 4pm (except Scottish public holidays)
- Email: apply@redress-scheme.scot

Providing your statement of abuse

In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

In Part 3, you need to provide a statement about your abuse. You can choose how you want to provide your statement. You can complete Q1, Q2, Q3 and Q4. Or you can:

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

Your statement for Care setting 1

Please read page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance before you begin.

In Part 1, you will have already provided information about the care settings you were abused in. By providing this information here, your case worker can join together the name of the care setting with your statement of abuse.

Q1 | What is the name or location of the relevant care setting you were abused in?

(For example, the name of the care home, or the city or region where you lived in foster care or while boarded out).

Carluke Children's Home

Do not worry if you are uncertain about dates or time. Please provide your best estimate.

Q2 | When were you abused?

For example: a single date, an age, or an approximate time or time range.

1986

You do not have to provide names, if you cannot remember or do not feel comfortable doing so. If you do provide a name it will be passed to Police Scotland.

Q3 | Who was involved in your abuse?

For example: a member of staff, a peer or someone outside the care setting.

The information you provide will be used by Redress Scotland to make a decision about your application. Redress Scotland will use the “Assessment framework” to help them do this, available on gov.scot. Please be aware that it contains graphic descriptions of abuse.

Q4 | On the next page, please provide as much information as you can about:

- the abuse you experienced while living in this care setting
- what life was like for you during this time
- how the people responsible for your care and welfare failed to carry out that duty (within or beyond your care setting)

You can continue on additional pages if you need to.

Please read page 36 of “Help to apply” to find out more about what information you may want to include.

I am providing this statement to formally document the treatment I experienced while residing at Carluke Children's Home, located at 39 Station Road, Carluke, ML8 5AD. During my time living at this facility, I believe I was subjected to physical mistreatment and bullying by members of staff, which caused me both physical harm and emotional distress.

While I was a resident at Carluke Children's Home, I was a child in care and therefore in a vulnerable position, reliant on staff members for safety, guidance, and protection. Instead of receiving appropriate care, I experienced behavior from staff that I now recognise as abusive. On multiple occasions, staff members used unnecessary and excessive physical force against me. This included throwing me to the floor, restraining me by force, and sitting on top of me. These incidents were not isolated and occurred without clear justification.

During these restraints, staff would tightly hold my wrists and sit on my stomach, which caused me significant pain and distress. I recall struggling to breathe comfortably at times and feeling completely powerless. As a result of these incidents, I sustained visible bruising and marks on my body. At the time, I did not feel able to challenge or report this treatment, as I believed it was simply part of being in care and that this behaviour was normal or acceptable.

Looking back now, I understand that what I experienced was not normal or appropriate. The use of physical force by adults, particularly by a male staff member approximately six feet tall against a twelve-year-old child, was excessive and unjustified. I now recognise that this constituted a serious misuse of power and a failure in safeguarding and duty of care. The actions of the staff members involved were intimidating and caused me fear rather than providing support or protection.

In addition to the physical harm, the way I was treated had a lasting emotional impact. Being restrained, hurt, and overpowered by adults who were meant to care for me affected my sense of safety and trust. I felt bullied and mistreated, which contributed to feelings of confusion, fear, and helplessness. As a child, I did not have the understanding or confidence to recognise that this behaviour was wrong, nor did I feel I had anyone I could safely turn to for help.

The effects of these experiences have stayed with me beyond my time at Carluke Children's Home. They have influenced how I view authority figures and have contributed to ongoing emotional and psychological difficulties. I believe that had I been treated appropriately, with care and respect, much of this harm could have been avoided.

I am making this statement to ensure that my experiences are formally recorded and acknowledged. Children in care deserve to be protected from harm, not subjected to it. I hope that by sharing my account, it may contribute to greater accountability and improved safeguarding for other vulnerable children in similar settings. This statement is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and recollection.

Your statement for Care setting 2
