The physical abuse started two to three months after I got there I had heard from the younger children that I had to be put in the quiet room I thought it was the younger kids being kids and exaggerating it all but I found out they were speaking the truth it was a box room with nothing in it after some time the staff member came in he grabbed me by the hair and started throwing me about the room shouting abuse at me whilst punching me on the torso and legs I didn't know why he didn't hit my face but I know now he didn't want any marks on my face this happened every time he was on duty

The sexual things started of with the same staff member when it was his turn to stay over night shift I was moved from a dorm to a single room he said that as I was a senior I needed my own room I don't know what time it was but it was very dark outside he would come in and start saying things like you getting big now and he started touching me every where then he put his mouth on my penis he stopped some time later and what sticks in my mind is he said this is what all men do after this he started playing with himself until he finished this went on for months and months I told Mr McFarland what was happening and he said he would see what he could do but it continued until I was nearly 16 this is only a small portion of what happened

The mental abuse is when you a scared to go to sleep as I was looking at the door to my room just waiting for it to open and it to happen again I'm only doing this as if it can help even one child to not go through what I did then it will be worth it his name was Mr Hannah and he lived in Lanark somewhere I only know this as the minibus that took us home dropped him off there I have got more things I could tell you but I find it still very difficult to speak of
