Day Month Year

The next section asks you to write your statement of abuse.

Section 2: Your statement of abuse

Please refer to page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance when filling in this form.

Please make sure that whatever way you provide your statement, you include all the information Redress Scotland needs to make a decision. You can find out more on page 35 of “Help to apply”.

You may find that writing this brings up feelings or memories. If you need support you can speak to a case worker who can refer you to further help:

- Telephone: 0808 175 0808 (freephone)
- International: +44 131 297 6500
Lines are open Monday to Thursday, from 10am to 4pm (except Scottish public holidays)
- Email: apply@redress-scheme.scot

Providing your statement of abuse

In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

In Part 3, you need to provide a statement about your abuse. You can choose how you want to provide your statement. You can complete Q1, Q2, Q3 and Q4. Or you can:

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

Your statement for Care setting 1

Please read page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance before you begin.

In Part 1, you will have already provided information about the care settings you were abused in. By providing this information here, your case worker can join together the name of the care setting with your statement of abuse.

Q1 | What is the name or location of the relevant care setting you were abused in?

(For example, the name of the care home, or the city or region where you lived in foster care or while boarded out).

Seafield Care Home

Do not worry if you are uncertain about dates or time. Please provide your best estimate.

Q2 | When were you abused?

For example: a single date, an age, or an approximate time or time range.

1984-1984

You do not have to provide names, if you cannot remember or do not feel comfortable doing so. If you do provide a name it will be passed to Police Scotland.

Q3 | Who was involved in your abuse?

For example: a member of staff, a peer or someone outside the care setting.

Dianne

The information you provide will be used by Redress Scotland to make a decision about your application. Redress Scotland will use the “Assessment framework” to help them do this, available on gov.scot. Please be aware that it contains graphic descriptions of abuse.

Q4 | On the next page, please provide as much information as you can about:

- the abuse you experienced while living in this care setting
- what life was like for you during this time
- how the people responsible for your care and welfare failed to carry out that duty (within or beyond your care setting)

You can continue on additional pages if you need to.

Please read page 36 of “Help to apply” to find out more about what information you may want to include.

Statement Addendum

Client Name: Katherine Hamilton
Date of Birth: 05/11/1969
Care Setting: Seafield Care Home
Dates: 1984-1984
Persons Involved: Dianne

Full Statement

At 15 years old, I was taken away from home and placed in Seafield Care Home, Aberdeen, where I stayed for four weeks. I hoped things would get better, but instead the abuse continued and became worse. From the very start in care, I was bullied and humiliated by staff. A staff member called Diane was particularly cruel to me. She bullied me daily, called me names such as "smelly" and "pee the bed." I was a bed wetter, and she made sure all the other children knew, deliberately humiliating me. She would slap me in the face and force me to eat food I didn't like; if I couldn't eat it, I was sent to bed hungry. Staff allowed the other children to bully and hit me constantly.

When I wet the bed, I was punished by being put into a freezing cold bath while staff called me names like "dicky" and "pissy bed." I would be crying and terrified, and no one helped me.

While in Seafield Care Home, I was also sexually abused by a member of staff. He came into the bathroom when I was vulnerable and assaulted me. This happened many of times over and over He bullied and threatened me into silence and held his hand over my mouth so I couldn't speak. I was terrified. Because of the abuse from my dad and the threats I had lived with, I did not trust men at all and felt completely trapped. I had no one I felt safe enough to tell.

There was also physical violence in the care home. Staff would hit us with their hands and use a black belt, smacking me across my backside. They would throw the belt against the walls to scare us. The way staff spoke to us was degrading and cruel. We were constantly frightened.

The social worker was aware of some of what was happening, but no one protected me and nothing was stopped. I was tormented, bullied, and assaulted for four weeks straight.

After those four weeks, I was placed back home, where the abuse by my dad continued until I was 16 years old, when I finally ran away and went to live with my auntie.

The impact of all of this abuse has been devastating and lifelong. At the time, I lived in constant fear, shame, and confusion. I learned very early that adults could not be trusted and that speaking out only made things worse.

As an adult, I have suffered deeply. I live with severe anxiety and PTSD. I do not trust men at all. I began using alcohol at a very young age to cope with the trauma, which later developed into alcoholism.

Because of this, my own children were taken into care, which added another layer of pain and guilt.

Although I have now managed to get my life back on track, the trauma has never left me. I am still haunted by memories, suffer sleepless nights, and experience severe panic attacks. Over time, the weight of everything I endured has made me feel suicidal, and I have been prescribed medication to try to help me cope.

What happened to me at home and in care has shaped my entire life. I was failed by the people who were meant to protect me, and the effects of that abuse continue to affect me every day.
