The next section asks you to write your statement of abuse.

Section 2: Your statement of abuse

Please refer to page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance when filling in this form.

Please make sure that whatever way you provide your statement, you include all the information Redress Scotland needs to make a decision. You can find out more on page 35 of “Help to apply”.

You may find that writing this brings up feelings or memories. If you need support you can speak to a case worker who can refer you to further help:

- Telephone: 0808 175 0808 (freephone)
- International: +44 131 297 6500
Lines are open Monday to Thursday, from 10am to 4pm (except Scottish public holidays)
- Email: apply@redress-scheme.scot

Providing your statement of abuse

In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

In Part 3, you need to provide a statement about your abuse. You can choose how you want to provide your statement. You can complete Q1, Q2, Q3 and Q4. Or you can:

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

Your statement for Care setting 1

Please read page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance before you begin.

In Part 1, you will have already provided information about the care settings you were abused in. By providing this information here, your case worker can join together the name of the care setting with your statement of abuse.

Q1 | What is the name or location of the relevant care setting you were abused in?

(For example, the name of the care home, or the city or region where you lived in foster care or while boarded out).

Edinburgh Local Authority

Do not worry if you are uncertain about dates or time. Please provide your best estimate.

Q2 | When were you abused?

For example: a single date, an age, or an approximate time or time range.

1982-1984

You do not have to provide names, if you cannot remember or do not feel comfortable doing so. If you do provide a name it will be passed to Police Scotland.

Q3 | Who was involved in your abuse?

For example: a member of staff, a peer or someone outside the care setting.

The information you provide will be used by Redress Scotland to make a decision about your application. Redress Scotland will use the “Assessment framework” to help them do this, available on gov.scot. Please be aware that it contains graphic descriptions of abuse.

Q4 | On the next page, please provide as much information as you can about:

- the abuse you experienced while living in this care setting
- what life was like for you during this time
- how the people responsible for your care and welfare failed to carry out that duty (within or beyond your care setting)

You can continue on additional pages if you need to.

Please read page 36 of “Help to apply” to find out more about what information you may want to include.

Your statement for Care setting 1 continued

I was in care because of the abuse I suffered from my mother. When I was around ten years old, I was moved to Peebles to live with her again, but the abuse continued and eventually left me in hospital for a week. During that period, I was in various different homes and foster placements, and I'm unsure of the exact details because I was moved around so much.

I went through multiple foster homes, constantly in and out of care. On my 12th birthday, my mother took me back again, and the abuse started all over. I ended up in hospital for over a week because of it.

Around that time, social workers found me a foster family. As soon as I arrived, I knew something felt strange. The grandparents lived directly next door to the foster family, and I had a suspicious feeling about the grandfather and the way he behaved around the grandchildren. When he looked after us, he would suggest playing hide and seek. He used to make us hide in his bed, and that's where he abused us — touching me and the grandchildren.

As soon as I realised what had happened, I tried to report it. I told social workers, and they took me out of the house. The granddaughters denied it and said nothing had happened, but eventually the grandfather was convicted for the crime. Even with that outcome, I suffered a lot mentally. I was passed around different children's homes, struggled in school, and found it hard to cope because of everything I had been through. At one point, I had to travel basically across the country to England.

When I think back to my time at Selkirk Priory, I remember that I was still just a young lad, trying to cope with things I didn't fully understand. I was young, vulnerable, and often unsure of myself, and the environment around me sometimes felt overwhelming. Those years shaped me in ways I didn't realise at the time, and certain moments have stayed with me very clearly.

One day in particular stands out. I had been brought back to the Priory by the police. I can still recall the mixture of fear, embarrassment, and confusion I felt as they escorted me inside. I didn't know what reaction I was going to face, and I already felt unsettled just from being brought back like that. I was expecting questions or maybe a telling off, but nothing prepared me for what actually happened.

As soon as we arrived, the manager at the time approached me. Instead of speaking to me or trying to understand the situation, he physically hit me. He punched me hard in the stomach, and the force of it knocked me straight to the floor. I remember the shock more than anything—the sudden realisation that someone who was meant to be responsible for my care was attacking me. While I was on the ground, he continued to lash out. I felt completely powerless, frightened, and unsure why this was happening. It was a moment where I genuinely didn't know how to protect myself.

What made the situation even more surreal was that the police saw everything. They witnessed him hitting me, saw me fall, and saw the way he continued to attack me. In that moment, I felt exposed but also strangely relieved that someone else could finally see what I was experiencing. The officers stepped in, and the manager was taken away. I remember feeling shaken, confused, and still scared, but also aware that what had happened was finally being acknowledged by someone in authority.

That incident has stayed with me because it was a moment where my vulnerability as a child was completely disregarded. It marked a turning point in how I understood the world around me and the people who were supposed to protect me.
