In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

During my time at Oakbank, it was awful. The teachers used to be horrible to us. I was only young, and I remember constantly feeling scared. The teachers would hit us, dig their knuckles into my chest, slap us, and do things no adult should ever do to a child. I even remember one of the lads ending up with a black eye. It wasn't just me — I saw loads of different boys get beaten up by the teachers. It felt like violence was normal there, and that was terrifying.

I remember one time they shouted at me and hit me, and it made me completely shut down. I didn't want to come out of my shell after that. I felt small, frightened, and like I had no voice. Even when we used to shower, we weren't safe. Female teachers would come in and look at us while we were showering. As a young boy, that was extremely uncomfortable and frightening. It felt like we had no privacy and no dignity.

There was also a man who used to come in at night. I don't think he was even a teacher. They called him "Uncle Sandy." He would grab me, make me take my pants off, and hit me with a belt as hard as he could. It happened a lot, and it wasn't just me — it happened to a lot of different boys during my time there. I don't even think he worked at the school. He used to just come in for bingo nights, yet he had access to us and was allowed to be around children unsupervised.

All of this left a huge impact on me. The fear, the abuse, the lack of safety, and the complete absence of protection from the adults who were supposed to care for us have stayed with me throughout my life. Oakbank wasn't a place of support — it was a place where children were hurt, ignored, and left vulnerable. The things I experienced there shaped me in ways I am still trying to understand.

There was another Jim Rob, he used to be a big fat man who used to hit you with his belly and send you flying.
