We previously only had 2 forms of proof of address for you that supported the use of your birth certificate. For this to be accepted as a form of ID, we would need 3 independent letters for proof of address. If you are able to send this, I will be able to push back on the local councils requesting further ID stating that the use of your birth certificate is sufficient alongside 3 Proof of Address

We look forward to hearing from you in due course.

Hi Mark,

We hope you are well.

Thank you for your response, we note it contents.

Unfortunately, local councils won't accept your birth certificate as a form of ID, they are requesting either a Driving license, passport etc. Due to this your Proof of Address is now out of date and we would need a new proof of address dated within the last 3 months.

If you could send photos of either your passport or driving license, a letter addressed to you with your current address. This letter can be a utility bill, council tax letter, HMRC etc

We look forward to hearing from you in due course.

Kind regards,

James
