I was in and out of foster care from a very young age and was placed with approximately seven or eight different foster families. Every placement was unstable, frightening, and marked by neglect or emotional abuse.

Christmases were especially traumatic for me, as they were repeatedly cancelled or deliberately used as a way to punish and humiliate me.

Throughout my time in care, I was made to feel unwanted, rejected, and disposable.

One of the few foster placements I clearly remember was at 3 Duncaren Avenue, Bonnybridge, with Mr and Mrs Blare. This placement stands out as one of the most distressing experiences of my childhood. While living there, Christmas never happened for me. On Christmas Day, they would wake me up knowing I had nothing, leave me sitting alone in my room crying, and deliberately torment me. I was around nine years old at this time.

During this placement, I was also subjected to frightening treatment at night. I was made to sit on the stairs in the dark, and I was repeatedly tormented with a torch being shone at me over a period of years. I lived in constant fear and confusion, never knowing what would happen next. I was emotionally neglected and made to feel invisible.

My brother was initially placed there with me, but after some time he was taken home and I was left behind. I was told he would not be coming back. I did not understand why he was allowed to leave and I wasn't. I was told it was because no one wanted me. I never saw him again. Being separated from my brother in this way caused deep emotional pain and confusion that has never left me. I was left completely alone and abandoned at an age when I needed protection and reassurance.

After this period, I was taken back briefly by my father for about a year. That placement also became abusive, and I eventually ran away.

I was taken into the care system again.

I was placed at Blairvadach Children's Home a large care home, when I was approximately 13. I was dumped there with around seven or eight other children. On my first night, we were all locked in our rooms. I stayed there for around six months. This is where the most severe abuse began.

The building was massive, with five floors, and housed children of all ages and backgrounds. We were not supervised or protected. Instead, we were left to fight each other. There were constant fights, bullying, intimidation, and fear. It felt more like a jail than a home. Fire doors were slammed shut and locked. I was terrified to go to bed every night.

Staff were too busy or unwilling to care for us. Instead of offering support, they played mind games with me and repeatedly told me that no one loved me. They made a point of telling me when other children were allowed to go home, while reminding me that I was abandoned and had nowhere to go. This was emotionally devastating and reinforced my belief that I was unwanted. I was here for around 6 months

I was moved to Craigellachie. By this point, my mental health had completely deteriorated. I was desperate for someone to listen or help me. I began putting my head through windows to injure myself because it felt like the only way anyone would notice or care. This is where my self-harming behaviour began. Staff did nothing to stop it.

Again, I was left alone, with no friends and no protection. Day staff would go home at night, and night staff would come on and deliberately pick at us and lock us in our rooms. Food was treated as optional. If we didn't get it on time, we were sent to bed hungry. This happened repeatedly.

I was given what was described as counselling, but it was not genuine support. It felt like an attempt to close my case and say they had helped me. It did nothing to address my pain. Staff laughed at my situation, rejected me when I asked for help, and tormented me when I was at my lowest point. I felt like my life was over.

Older children were violent towards me. I was punched and kicked regularly. I had to fight to defend myself. Staff restrained us physically, often aggressively, and this caused pain and fear. While restraining me, they would torment me further as I cried and screamed. I was then locked in my room alone.

I remained in Craigellachie until I was 16 years old, suffering ongoing mental and physical abuse. My suicidal thoughts became overwhelming. I felt trapped and treated like an animal, with no way to escape. As soon as I turned 16, I joined the armed forces simply to get away and survive.
