The next section asks you to write your statement of abuse.

Section 2: Your statement of abuse

Please refer to page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance when filling in this form.

Please make sure that whatever way you provide your statement, you include all the information Redress Scotland needs to make a decision. You can find out more on page 35 of “Help to apply”.

You may find that writing this brings up feelings or memories. If you need support you can speak to a case worker who can refer you to further help:

- Telephone: 0808 175 0808 (freephone)
- International: +44 131 297 6500
Lines are open Monday to Thursday, from 10am to 4pm (except Scottish public holidays)
- Email: apply@redress-scheme.scot

Providing your statement of abuse

In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

In Part 3, you need to provide a statement about your abuse. You can choose how you want to provide your statement. You can complete Q1, Q2, Q3 and Q4. Or you can:

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

Your statement for Care setting 1

Please read page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance before you begin.

In Part 1, you will have already provided information about the care settings you were abused in. By providing this information here, your case worker can join together the name of the care setting with your statement of abuse.

Q1 | What is the name or location of the relevant care setting you were abused in?

(For example, the name of the care home, or the city or region where you lived in foster care or while boarded out).

Poleworth Terrace Care Home, Edinburgh

Do not worry if you are uncertain about dates or time. Please provide your best estimate.

Q2 | When were you abused?

For example: a single date, an age, or an approximate time or time range.

1964-1965

You do not have to provide names, if you cannot remember or do not feel comfortable doing so. If you do provide a name it will be passed to Police Scotland.

Q3 | Who was involved in your abuse?

For example: a member of staff, a peer or someone outside the care setting.

The information you provide will be used by Redress Scotland to make a decision about your application. Redress Scotland will use the “Assessment framework” to help them do this, available on gov.scot. Please be aware that it contains graphic descriptions of abuse.

Q4 | On the next page, please provide as much information as you can about:

- the abuse you experienced while living in this care setting
- what life was like for you during this time
- how the people responsible for your care and welfare failed to carry out that duty (within or beyond your care setting)

You can continue on additional pages if you need to.

Please read page 36 of “Help to apply” to find out more about what information you may want to include.

During my time there, I experienced all sorts of abuse. The older boys would target me constantly, and it felt like there was no escape from what they were doing. Throughout my time in that place, I suffered sexual abuse, physical abuse, and mental abuse. Looking back, it was one of the worst periods of my life. Most of the harm came from the older boys in the school, and what made it even harder was knowing that the staff saw what was happening. They turned a blind eye to everything and simply allowed it to continue, as if our suffering didn't matter.

There was one time when I was locked in a cupboard overnight. I remember the fear, the darkness, and the feeling of being completely forgotten. When the staff finally came downstairs in the morning, they didn't show any concern. They just laughed at me and didn't even bother to open the door. That moment stays with me because it showed so clearly that they didn't care about our safety or wellbeing. They were fully aware of what was happening to us, yet they chose to ignore it.

The older boys were treated almost like friends by the staff. They were allowed to run wild, and no one stepped in to protect us. The staff would leave for the night, and once they were gone, it was the older children who took over. That was when things became truly horrendous. There was no supervision, no protection, and no one to turn to. We were left completely vulnerable, and the older boys used that power to control, intimidate, and abuse us however they wanted.

Living through that environment left a deep emotional impact on me. The lack of safety, the constant fear, and the feeling of being completely unprotected shaped the way I saw myself and the world around me. It wasn't just the actions of the older boys that harmed me — it was the silence and inaction of the adults who were supposed to keep us safe. Their failure to intervene made the abuse feel even more isolating and traumatic.
