In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

In Part 3, you need to provide a statement about your abuse. You can choose how you want to provide your statement. You can complete Q1, Q2, Q3 and Q4. Or you can:

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

I was placed into Longriggend for around three weeks, and it was some of the worst time of my life. From the moment I arrived, I felt unsafe and overwhelmed. The guys and even some of the staff were violent towards me. I remember feeling constantly on edge, never knowing when someone might lash out. They took my shoes and ripped up my clothes, leaving me feeling exposed, embarrassed, and completely powerless. It was as if they wanted to strip away any sense of comfort or dignity I had.

There were times when I couldn't even eat properly because people would take my food away from me. Something as basic as having a meal became a struggle. It made me feel like I didn't matter, like my needs were irrelevant. When my mother came up to visit and left presents for me, the staff wouldn't give them to me. Knowing that something from home—something meant to show love and support—was being kept from me was incredibly painful. It felt like they were deliberately trying to isolate me from the only comfort I had. The staff were also verbally abusive towards me and would call me names. Hearing those words from people who were supposed to be responsible for my care was deeply damaging. It made me feel worthless and alone. Their tone, their attitude, and the way they spoke to me made it clear they had no respect for me at all.

There were no proper toilet facilities, and they used to make me use a potty in front of everyone. That was one of the most humiliating experiences I have ever gone through. I remember feeling ashamed, degraded, and completely stripped of my dignity. Being forced into such a vulnerable position in front of others left a lasting impact on me.

All of these experiences have stayed with me. They shaped how I felt about myself and how I understood the world around me. Even now, thinking back on it brings up a mix of sadness, anger, and disbelief that anyone—especially staff—could treat a young person that way.
