Dear Jean,

I am writing to confirm that we have received your application for Scotland's Redress Scheme. Your application reference number is: APP359303

Your application will be assigned to a designated case worker who will be responsible for working on your application and will be a point of contact throughout the process.

Please note that due to the high volumes of redress applications received, the time taken to have applications assigned to a case worker is taking longer than we would like.

We would like to reassure you that we are working hard to ensure your application will be assigned at the earliest opportunity. You can continue to provide further information to the scheme in order to progress your application. You can also contact the team if you wish to discuss your application. They are here to help and answer any questions you may have.

We have reviewed the documents provided to date, and provide a summary of the further information required below.

In summary:

- Part 1 (Details of your Nominated Beneficiary)
- Certified ID – information sheet included
- Care records – information sheet included
- Supporting documentation
- Bank details

Support service

We have a support service who can provide practical support with the application, emotional support through the process and support to access records. If you would like to access support from our support service, please contact us on the details below.

Further Information

We are enclosing a copy of the Summary of Options guidance, and a flow chart providing information about the application process, which we send to all applicants.

We provide some further information about the documentation required to progress your application below:

Part 1 Application

In Part 1 of the application form there is some important information missing:

1. Please provide details of your Nominated Beneficiary
2. Terminal Illness

You have provided some information under section 4 of the application regarding terminal illness. Please could you contact us immediately to confirm your health status in order that we can prioritise your application appropriately.

If you have a terminal illness, Scotland's Redress Scheme will prioritise your application. You can choose to provide evidence of your illness using a copy of your DS1500 or BASRiS document. Please do not send the original.

If you do not have a DS1500 or BASRiS form, you can provide:

- a medical reference number
- the details of a health practitioner who can confirm your diagnosis

Please see page 15 of the "Help to Apply" guidance.

Bank Statement

You have not provided your bank details. In order to ensure any payment is only received by applicants we will require a bank statement to confirm your account. We do not need to see any transactions, simply your name, address, sort code and account number. If you have any questions regarding this please do not hesitate to contact me.

Certified ID

You have provided a copy of your ID card and a Letter, which are appropriate identification documents, however the scheme requires this to be dated and certified. Please see attached information sheet on how to confirm your identity.

Care Records

For individually assessed payment applications, you need to provide one document to show you were in the care of each relevant care setting you mention in your application.

Please see page 22 of the “Help to Apply” guidance.

I enclose information sheet regarding the different ways to access care records.

Supporting Documents

For individually assessed payment applications, you need to provide at least one document that supports your statement of abuse.

You can read more about documents you can use on page 33 of the “Help to Apply” guidance.

Further help and support

If you have any questions about the contents of this letter, require additional copies of application forms, or require any further support concerning your application, please don't hesitate to get in contact with us.

Solicitor's fees

You can choose to involve a solicitor to support you with your application to Scotland's Redress Scheme. You do not need to involve a solicitor to make an application. You can contact us directly using the details below.

Scotland's Redress Scheme can pay fixed fees directly to your solicitor. This is available to all applicants and is not means tested. You should check that your solicitor will work for the fees available. They should request payment directly from Scotland's Redress Scheme.

You or your solicitor can find out more information on available fees by contacting us using the details below, or by reading the statutory guidance on gov.scot/redress.

Even though the fees are paid by Scotland's Redress Scheme, your solicitor is independent. They will work for you and not for Scotland's Redress Scheme.

Telephone: 0808 175 0808 (freephone)

Lines are open Monday to Thursday from 10am to 4pm, excluding Scottish public holidays. There is an answering machine at other times, and if you leave a message we will get back to you as soon as we can.
