I entered the care system at the age of eight, where my experiences were marked by fear, violence, and long-term trauma. Instead of receiving protection and care, I was treated as a criminal and subjected to physical and psychological abuse by those who were meant to safeguard me. While attending Andrew Thompson School, I was repeatedly locked in a room as a form of control and punishment. This isolation was frightening and degrading for a child of my age. I was physically assaulted by more than one member of staff, who shouted at me, kicked me, and treated me with hostility rather than care. The mental abuse was ongoing and severe. I was twisted, restrained, and psychologically tortured over a period of more than four years. These experiences left me feeling powerless, unsafe, and deeply traumatized during a time in my life when I should have been protected and supported.

At the age of twelve, I was placed at Oak Bank School, where the abuse escalated further. I was subjected to extreme physical violence by staff members. Cigarettes were put out on my body, leaving both physical scars and lasting emotional damage. My head was repeatedly banged against a wall by a senior member of staff during an incident that took place in the boardroom. This individual was an ex-army serviceman from New Zealand. I was assaulted without provocation or justification, and there was no intervention or accountability from other staff members.

I was also hit with snooker cues and surrounded by multiple staff members who participated in or allowed the abuse to continue. The environment was one of fear and intimidation, where violence was normalized and my safety was completely disregarded. Instead of discipline or care, I experienced humiliation, pain, and terror on a daily basis.

At the age of thirteen, after running away from Oak Bank School in an attempt to escape the abuse, I broke into a construction site for shelter. During this time, I suffered a life-threatening incident and was set on fire. I was taken to Aberdeen Royal Infirmary for treatment. This event was a direct consequence of the neglect and abuse I endured while in care, as I felt I had no safe place to go and no adults I could trust.

These experiences have had a profound and lasting impact on my life. The abuse I suffered in care was not isolated or accidental; it was repeated, sustained, and carried out by multiple authority figures. I was a vulnerable child who was failed by the systems designed to protect me. This statement reflects the reality of what I endured and the long-term harm caused by those actions.
