In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

I was 14 years old when I moved in there, and looking back, I can see just how vulnerable I was at that age. Not long after arriving, I started seeing a man who was around 23 years old at the time. I ended up becoming pregnant by him. What still affects me deeply is that the foster family and the local authority who placed me in that home knew about the relationship. They knew he was much older than me, and they knew he had impregnated me. At 14, I didn't fully understand the situation or the power imbalance, but now I can see clearly that it wasn't okay. I was a child, and he was an adult. I could easily have been taken advantage of, and the people responsible for my care should have protected me.

I feel strongly that this was a form of neglect from both the foster family and the professionals who placed me there. They had a duty to safeguard me, and instead they allowed a situation to continue that no child should ever have been put in. I didn't have the maturity or understanding to recognise the risks, and the adults around me failed to step in. That lack of protection has stayed with me and has had a lasting emotional impact.

As soon as I turned 16 years old, I was kicked out immediately. There was no support, no guidance, and no sense that anyone cared about what happened to me next. It was clear that I wasn't wanted by the family. Being pushed out so suddenly at such a young age made me feel abandoned and rejected. After everything that had already happened, being forced out like that only added to the emotional damage.

These experiences have had a significant impact on me mentally. The relationship with an adult when I was still a child, the lack of safeguarding, the neglect from the people who were supposed to protect me, and then being kicked out the moment I turned 16 — all of it has stayed with me. It shaped the way I saw myself and the world around me. I was left to deal with the consequences on my own, and the emotional effects have followed me into adulthood.
