How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know

Please read page 36 of “Help to apply” to find out more about what information you may want to include.

During my time at St. Mary's, I entered into a relationship with a 16 year old boy who was living there under a court order. The staff were fully aware of the relationship and allowed it to continue without any intervention or safeguarding. I eventually became pregnant by him, even though he was not legally allowed to leave the premises due to the conditions of his order.

Looking back, it is clear to me that the staff failed in their duty to protect me. Although I believed I was consenting at the time, I was still a child, and it was the responsibility of the adults around me to ensure my safety and wellbeing. This was not a one off incident—we were in a sexually active relationship, and the staff knew about it and did nothing. Their neglect had serious consequences for my life.

During my time there, I also witnessed other children being restrained in ways that were extremely aggressive. Staff would use forceful methods, including putting their knees into children's backs while holding them down. Seeing this happen repeatedly had a significant impact on me. It made me hesitant to come out of my shell or express myself, because I was constantly worried that something similar might happen to me. The environment felt unsafe, unpredictable, and intimidating.

There was also a staff member who used to give me cigarettes. At the time, I didn't fully understand how inappropriate that was, but now I can see how it contributed to the lack of boundaries and safeguarding within the home. Instead of being supported, guided, or protected, I was exposed to situations and behaviours that no child should ever have to navigate.

All of these experiences—the neglect, the lack of protection, the inappropriate relationships, and the violent restraints I witnessed—have had a lasting effect on me. They shaped the way I saw myself and the world around me. As a child, I didn't have the tools to understand what was happening or to advocate for myself. As an adult, I can now recognise how deeply these experiences affected my emotional wellbeing, my confidence, and my sense of safety.
