Hi Gemma,

Thanks for getting back to me and I completely understand that bringing all of this back up will have had a massive impact on your own health and well-being. We wouldn't be able to add charges involving you, and the main reason for this is that the offending you reported happened in England and we can only prosecute someone if the offending happened in Scotland. Although we cannot prosecute him for it, we can lead that evidence in court, and this can provide evidential support for others who have reported Colin Spall for similar offending.

If you are still happy to meet with me next Wednesday, then I can go over all of this in more detail. I think it is important that I provide you with all of the information and allow you to ask questions so that you can make an informed decision. We will not force you to do anything you don't want to do. If it would help, we could include your CPN in on the meeting for support?
