I was taken away from my family at the age of 12 and placed in Kirk Michael Care Home in Maybole, Scotland. From the very beginning I was terrified. I was emotionally distressed, frightened, and heartbroken from being separated from my family. My earliest memories of this place are of fear, confusion, and deep sadness.

At Kirk Michael, members of staff were immediately abusive towards me. I remember staff members known as Mr Ridge or Mr Richardson (the name was something along those lines). He was physically violent towards me. I was regularly hit, pushed around, and slapped across the face. This violence was routine and deliberate.

I was also subjected to extreme physical punishment and cruelty. On many occasions I was tied to a chair and left there all day, crying, in pain, terrified, and completely helpless. I was tormented while restrained and ignored while I begged for help. This caused me intense physical pain and emotional distress.

I also remember an incident where I was placed in a bath and scrubbed with a yard brush. My skin was left red raw and painfully damaged, and I was unable to lie down properly for several days afterward. This treatment was degrading, brutal, and inhumane.

Food was often withheld as punishment. I was frequently sent to bed hungry. When I asked for food or help, staff would laugh at me, mock my distress, and deliberately ignore my needs. I remained at Kirk Michael for around two years, living in constant fear, hunger, pain, and emotional torment.

The abuse I suffered throughout my time in care has had severe and lasting effects on my mental health. Even as a child, I was living in constant fear, shame, confusion, and emotional pain. As an adult, the damage has never gone away.

I suffer daily with PTSD, anxiety, and depression. I do not feel like the same person I once was. My ability to trust others, feel safe, and live a normal life has been permanently damaged. I feel that my life was ruined before it ever had a chance to begin.

I will never forget how I was failed by the care system. I will never forget the abuse I suffered, or the other children I witnessed being abused as well. The trauma of what happened to me in care

At around the age of 13, I was moved to Thornton Care Home in Crosshouse, North Ayrshire, where I stayed for approximately one year. Although the physical abuse was not as severe as at Kirk Michael, the abuse here was primarily mental and emotional. I was left isolated and secluded, with no one to talk to and no emotional support.

Punishments at Thornton involved being locked in my bedroom for long periods. I was left alone with my thoughts, which was devastating given the trauma I had already suffered. Being trapped in isolation worsened my mental health significantly. I felt abandoned, invisible, and completely alone.

At around 14 to 15 years old, I was placed in Keir Law in Stevenson, North Ayrshire, and this was the worst period of my life. From the moment I arrived, I was met with staff screaming in my face. The environment was violent, threatening, and terrifying.

I remember staff members including Matthews Jobs (I think) and Mr Muldoon, a PE teacher. These men subjected me to severe physical abuse. I was beaten black and blue. They used belts and balls to hit me. On multiple occasions, my trousers were pulled down and I was beaten with a belt in front of other children. This was deeply humiliating, degrading, and traumatising. I was also subjected to sexual abuse and sexual humiliation. I was dragged to the shower areas after PE lessons, where staff would watch us naked. Mr Muldoon would frequently linger in the showers. This was invasive, frightening, and degrading.

At Keir Law, I was constantly in pain and living in fear. I had no support, and no one listened to me. Staff would encourage or allow older children to beat me, and I was tormented for their amusement. I was powerless and completely unprotected.

I was sexually assaulted by Matt on many occasions. He carried out inappropriate sexual acts towards me and forced or pressured me to do inappropriate things to him. There was no escape from this abuse. It happened repeatedly, and it destroyed my sense of safety, trust, and self-worth.

Everyone knew what was happening to me, yet no one was willing to help or stop it. Instead of protecting me, they stopped my weekend visits, isolated me further, and kept me secluded from anyone who might help. I was terrified of staff and some of the other children. I remained at Keir Law until I turned 16 years old.

The abuse I suffered throughout my time in care has had severe and lasting effects on my mental health. Even as a child, I was living in constant fear, shame, confusion, and emotional pain. As an adult, the damage has never gone away.

I suffer daily with PTSD, anxiety, and depression. I do not feel like the same person I once was. My ability to trust others, feel safe, and live a normal life has been permanently damaged. I feel that my life was ruined before it ever had a chance to begin.

I will never forget how I was failed by the care system. I will never forget the abuse I suffered, or the other children I witnessed being abused as well. The trauma of what happened to me in care continues to affect every part of my life.
