I was taken to Rossy Boys School in Montrose, where I stayed for three years, until around the age of 15. From the moment I arrived, it was horrific. The place was chaotic and terrifying. Staff were aggressive and hostile towards me. People were screaming and running around constantly. The boys in there were criminals. There were killers, people who used knives, and people who robbed cars. I lived in constant fear. I kept my head down because I was too scared to step out of line.

Most of the staff were ex-Navy and ex-Army, and they were brutal. They punched me in the ribs, pulled me by the hair, and kicked me in the balls. There was a staff member called Mr Black. When we were lining up for dinner, if our hands were resting on the railings, he would take a large bunch of keys and smash them onto our hands.

The mental torture in that place was relentless. I was constantly terrorised. The staff escorted us to the showers and forced us to shower together with other children. There was no privacy whatsoever. This caused further humiliation and trauma. They supplied cigarettes but deliberately played children against each other to control us.

We were constantly locked up. At night, we were locked into dorms with three other beds. I was later moved into a single room and kept there in isolation, completely secluded. I had no friends. They prevented me from forming any relationships.

I was a good child. I did not deserve any of this. No one cared about my wellbeing. I was told every single day that I was unwanted.

We were beaten like animals. After being assaulted, we were dragged away, locked in rooms, and left crying. There was no education provided at all. Because of this, I didn't attend college until I was 32 years old just to get a basic education.

I lived my entire childhood in fear.

Your statement for Care setting 2 continued

I was first placed in Dundee Children's Home on Hairstain Road, Kirkton, called Burnside.

My first memories of arriving at Burnside are being absolutely terrified. I was scared and nervous from the moment I walked in. I knew straight away that I was not safe there. I genuinely felt safer living on the streets than being inside that place.

The other children started bullying me immediately. They would kick me and slap me around constantly. I was targeted because I was small and vulnerable. But the staff were even worse.

The punishments in Burnside were brutal. They had their own cell inside the building. If you were upset, crying, or beaten up, they would fling you into this cell and lock you in there all day. I remember being beaten, crying uncontrollably, and thrown into that cell like I was nothing. I was treated like an animal.

The sexual abuse started in Burnside, and it was carried out by staff members. One night, while I was alone in my room, a staff member came over to my bed. He touched and played with my private parts. I was completely frozen. I pretended to be asleep because I was terrified. I couldn't move, I couldn't speak, and I couldn't scream.

I witnessed this happening to other children as well. If we reacted or showed fear, he would beat us up. He especially targeted the girls. We all knew we could not speak up about what was happening if we wanted to survive. Night time was terrifying. Every night we lived in fear of what would happen once the doors were closed.

Another night, I was pulled out of my bed, forced onto my front, and my pants were pulled down. I was sexually assaulted. When it was over, he simply walked out of the room and left me lying there. I genuinely thought I had been chopped in half. I couldn't feel anything from my waist down. I couldn't feel my legs. I was completely numb.

This was the worst experience of my life. It destroyed me mentally and physically. I was suffering every single day in Burnside.
