How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

During this time, I was placed with multiple foster families. It was an awful experience. I never felt settled or safe, and each move brought new uncertainty. Instead of finding stability, I was exposed to more trauma. I experienced emotional abuse from people who were supposed to care for me. The way they spoke to me, treated me, and made me feel was deeply damaging. I was made to feel worthless and unwanted, and that emotional pain stayed with me.

I also suffered sexual abuse from one of the foster families. It happened on multiple occasions, and it was horrific. I was just a child, and I didn't understand why this was happening or how to stop it. I felt scared, ashamed, and completely alone. That kind of abuse leaves deep scars, and it's something I've had to carry with me ever since.

At one of the first families I was placed with, I also suffered physical abuse. It was severe enough that I was eventually moved away from them, and they ended up being struck off. While I'm glad action was taken, the damage had already been done. The fear, the pain, and the betrayal of trust had already taken root. I was supposed to be protected, but instead I was hurt by the very people who were meant to help me.

All of this has had a lasting effect on me mentally. The emotional, physical, and sexual abuse I endured during my time in foster care has shaped how I see myself and the world around me. I've struggled with trust, relationships, and feeling safe. I've been diagnosed with complex PTSD as a result of the trauma I experienced. It affects me daily — in how I think, how I feel, and how I interact with others.

I was a vulnerable child who needed care and protection. Instead, I was placed in situations that caused me harm. The people responsible for my wellbeing failed me, and that sense of neglect has stayed with me. I'm still working through the impact of those years, and I hope that by speaking about it, I can continue to heal.
