How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

Please read page 36 of “Help to apply” to find out more about what information you may want to include.

When I was placed into Rossie School in Montrose, DD10 9TW, I was a vulnerable child who needed care, stability, and protection. Instead, I experienced sustained mental, physical, and emotional abuse from both staff and other residents. What should have been a place of safety became a place of fear that has stayed with me for the rest of my life.

The staff mentally abused me on a regular basis. I was shouted at, humiliated, and constantly spoken to in a degrading way. They called me names and made me feel worthless, as though I was a problem rather than a child who needed support. Over time, this broke down my confidence and self-esteem, leaving me feeling small, ashamed, and completely alone.

The physical abuse was just as damaging. I was kicked, punched, and slapped by staff members and other residents. Violence was normalised, and there was no real intervention to stop it. I learned quickly that speaking up only made things worse, so I stayed quiet and tried to survive day by day. Living in constant fear of being attacked left me on edge all the time, unable to relax or feel safe.

Some of the most traumatic experiences I endured involved sexual abuse by other residents at the school. At the time, I was too frightened to tell anyone. I did not feel protected by the staff, and I believed that no one would listen or help me. I carried that fear and silence with me for years. The abuse was never reported, and I was left to cope with it on my own, without support or understanding.

The environment at Rossie School was damaging and unsafe. There was a clear failure to protect vulnerable children, and the lack of supervision and care allowed abuse to continue unchecked. I felt trapped, powerless, and forgotten.

These experiences have had long-lasting effects on my mental health and wellbeing. The abuse I suffered has shaped how I see myself and how I relate to others. Even now, the memories remain vivid, and the impact continues to affect my daily life. What happened to me at Rossie School was not discipline or care — it was abuse, and it has left wounds that I am still working to heal.
