Your statement for Care setting 3 continued

Worst of all he was then sent to Fyffe Scotland to a family called Carl and Den where he was very badly abused and his brother

They were. If it wasn't for the neighbors whilst Andy was staying with the family Carl and Den this was the worst time he was left to starve, beat to death, the neighbors had to break them free to contact them. Fyffe police and ambulance were there, his brother ended up in hospital due to this. The neighbors called the police as they had to escape and sneak to their house to get fed, they had to eat the paper off the walls and he would sleep under the stairs, and when with Carl and Den they would have to rub oil in Carl and make him and his siblings sit down and keep hands behind their backs, not allowed to speak and make a noise, it's very hard for him to relive these situations as they were trapped and being badly abused by this foster family. They kicked his brother down the stairs and made him watch, saying it was funny. He tried to protect his little brother as much as he could and he still feels guilt till this day.

This has changed his life for ever. He lives with very bad PTSD, can not have a relationship with anybody, doesn't trust anybody, he will never forget what he's been through. He can't understand why this has happened to him, he can not take away these flashbacks, it has caused very bad nightmares. He can't sleep properly, doesn't trust a soul and felt like his life's been over since he was 6.
