The next section asks you to write your statement of abuse.

Section 2: Your statement of abuse

Please refer to page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance when filling in this form.

Please make sure that whatever way you provide your statement, you include all the information Redress Scotland needs to make a decision. You can find out more on page 35 of “Help to apply”.

You may find that writing this brings up feelings or memories. If you need support you can speak to a case worker who can refer you to further help:

- Telephone: 0808 175 0808 (freephone)
- International: +44 131 297 6500
Lines are open Monday to Thursday, from 10am to 4pm (except Scottish public holidays)
- Email: apply@redress-scheme.scot

Providing your statement of abuse

In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

In Part 3, you need to provide a statement about your abuse. You can choose how you want to provide your statement. You can complete Q1, Q2, Q3 and Q4. Or you can:

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

Your statement for Care setting 1

Please read page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance before you begin.

In Part 1, you will have already provided information about the care settings you were abused in. By providing this information here, your case worker can join together the name of the care setting with your statement of abuse.

Q1 | What is the name or location of the relevant care setting you were abused in?

(For example, the name of the care home, or the city or region where you lived in foster care or while boarded out).

Craig Residential School

Do not worry if you are uncertain about dates or time. Please provide your best estimate.

Q2 | When were you abused?

For example: a single date, an age, or an approximate time or time range.

1961

You do not have to provide names, if you cannot remember or do not feel comfortable doing so. If you do provide a name it will be passed to Police Scotland.

Q3 | Who was involved in your abuse?

For example: a member of staff, a peer or someone outside the care setting.

The staff and children

The information you provide will be used by Redress Scotland to make a decision about your application. Redress Scotland will use the “Assessment framework” to help them do this, available on gov.scot. Please be aware that it contains graphic descriptions of abuse.

Q4 | On the next page, please provide as much information as you can about:

- the abuse you experienced while living in this care setting
- what life was like for you during this time
- how the people responsible for your care and welfare failed to carry out that duty (within or beyond your care setting)

You can continue on additional pages if you need to.

Please read page 36 of “Help to apply” to find out more about what information you may want to include.

Statement Addendum

Client Name: Peter Murray
Date of Birth: 26/02/1972
Care Setting: Craig Residential School
Dates: 1961
Persons Involved: The staff and children

Full Statement

In 1961, when I was very young, I was taken from my parents. Being removed from my family at such a tender age left me feeling completely lonely, scared, sad, and emotionally overwhelmed. I was sent to Craig Residential School for six weeks, and even being taken away for that short time felt like an unbearable punishment. It was the beginning of one of the most traumatic periods of my life.

From the moment I arrived at Craig, I was subjected to degrading and humiliating treatment. The staff would watch us when we were in the showers, claiming they needed to wash us. This complete invasion of privacy left me feeling exposed, powerless, and ashamed. It was deeply unsettling, and no child should have to experience such a violation of dignity.

Food was scarce, and at times, there was none available at all. I remember moments when toothpaste was the only thing we could eat. Being starved in this way was horrifying. The constant hunger was unbearable, and there was no option or escape. This neglect caused both physical suffering and long-lasting emotional trauma.

The staff regularly used physical punishment in ways that were painful and frightening. They would restrain us violently, sit on us, bend our arms back, push, prod, and hit us as a form of discipline. The pain was often severe, and the fear of further punishment was constant. It was not just the physical pain that hurt—it was the humiliation, fear, and helplessness that came with it. The school operated more like a prison than a place for children, with doors always locked and children secluded in rooms for long periods.

The mental abuse was relentless. I would cry myself to sleep at night, only to be shouted at, hit, or further restrained for showing my emotions. Expressing fear or sadness was treated as a wrongdoing, leaving me feeling trapped, worthless, and terrified. This constant stress and emotional torment affected my sense of safety and stability in ways that have lasted my entire life.

The experience also deeply affected my relationship with my family. It took me years to forgive my mother for sending me to Craig. The trauma created a permanent rupture in our relationship, and I have struggled with trust ever since. I find it very difficult to form close relationships, and I often feel isolated.

The abuse I suffered also contributed to struggles with addiction. I turned to alcohol and drugs at a very young age as a way to cope with the pain and trauma, though I have since recovered. Returning to school after Craig was another challenge. I was bullied by other children, which further damaged my confidence and disrupted my education. This had long-term consequences for my life and career opportunities, leaving me playing catch-up with my education even now.

The lasting impact on my mental health has been profound. I continue to suffer from anxiety and depression. I often feel like an outsider, like someone who does not fully belong. The sense of fear, isolation, and mistrust I developed at Craig continues to shape how I interact with the world. I struggle with feelings of loneliness, low self-esteem, and difficulty trusting others. The trauma I experienced has had a cumulative effect, affecting my relationships, my emotional well-being, and my ability to navigate life with confidence and security.

Being at Craig Residential School was not just a bad experience—it was a formative trauma that has affected every aspect of my life. The physical abuse, emotional cruelty, neglect, deprivation, and humiliation have left deep and lasting scars. These experiences continue to impact my mental health, my relationships, and my daily life to this day. The effects are not in the past—they are ongoing, and they have shaped the person I am now.
