Providing your statement of abuse

In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

In Part 3, you need to provide a statement about your abuse. You can choose how you want to provide your statement. You can complete Q1, Q2, Q3 and Q4. Or you can:

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

Your statement for Care setting 1

Please read page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance before you begin.

In Part 1, you will have already provided information about the care settings you were abused in. By providing this information here, your case worker can join together the name of the care setting with your statement of abuse.

Q1 | What is the name or location of the relevant care setting you were abused in?

(For example, the name of the care home, or the city or region where you lived in foster care or while boarded out).

Kibill Paisley

Do not worry if you are uncertain about dates or time. Please provide your best estimate.

Q2 | When were you abused?

For example: a single date, an age, or an approximate time or time range.

1975

You do not have to provide names, if you cannot remember or do not feel comfortable doing so. If you do provide a name it will be passed to Police Scotland.

Q3 | Who was involved in your abuse?

For example: a member of staff, a peer or someone outside the care setting.

The information you provide will be used by Redress Scotland to make a decision about your application. Redress Scotland will use the “Assessment framework” to help them do this, available on gov.scot. Please be aware that it contains graphic descriptions of abuse.

Q4 | On the next page, please provide as much information as you can about:

- the abuse you experienced while living in this care setting
- what life was like for you during this time
- how the people responsible for your care and welfare failed to carry out that duty (within or beyond your care setting)

You can continue on additional pages if you need to.

Please read page 36 of “Help to apply” to find out more about what information you may want to include.

When I was 13 years old, I was taken into care. I was scared, nervous, and extremely upset because I was taken away from my family with no explanation. I did not understand why this was happening, and it caused me immediate distress and fear.

My first memories in care are of the main school, which was made up of different units. At the beginning, I thought I would be okay, but this quickly changed when I realised that the older children were bullying me. They would act aggressively towards me, hit me, push me, and call me names on a regular basis. This bullying was both physical and mental and happened constantly.

The staff were aware of what was happening, but they did nothing to protect me. Because of this, my experience in care became unbearable very quickly. The staff themselves would shout and scream at us regularly, creating a frightening environment. Punishments were severe and cruel. We were often sent to our rooms and locked in, sometimes for long periods. During these punishments, we were not allowed out to eat, which meant that we sometimes went hungry.

The adults would always escort us to the showers, which made me feel uncomfortable and added to the lack of privacy and control over my own body. There was constant mental and physical intimidation, and I felt like I was being bullied not only by the older children but also by the environment and the way the place was run.

I was in the main school for three weeks. There was a member of staff called Skivey who was civil with us and showed some understanding, but he was not on shift for long, and his behavior was not typical of the other staff.

The staff would allow us to fight each other for cigarettes, and we were allowed to smoke at a very young age, which shows how little care there was for our safety or wellbeing. They would also stop me from going home on weekends as a punishment, even though they knew how much I looked forward to going home and how important it was to me, especially because I was being bullied so badly by the older children.

The older children would take my belongings, call me names, push me around, and constantly bully me. I had nowhere to turn for help. The staff would also shove us around physically. They clearly had favorites', and I was not one of them. I believe this was because I was a victim who spoke up about what was happening, which made things worse for me rather than better.

Food was provided regularly, but sometimes it was uneatable, and as a result I would go to bed hungry. This had a serious effect on me both physically and mentally. I felt completely abandoned. I had been taken from my family for no reason, and now I was placed in a home where I was being terrorized by older children, while the staff stood by and watched it happen.

All of this has had a long-lasting impact on my life. It has affected my ability to form relationships, and I do not trust people. I suffer from severe anxiety, and I also suffer from PTSD. The treatment I experienced in care has stayed with me, and I will never forget the way I was treated, both mentally and physically.

Your statement for Care setting 2

Please read page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance before you begin.

In Part 1, you will have already provided information about the care settings you were abused in. By providing this information here, your case worker can join together the name of the care setting with your statement of abuse.
