- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

In the children's home, I was abandoned and left to freeze outside on the yard, shivering uncontrollably in nothing but shorts and a t-shirt while the bitter winter cold cut through me like knives.

Night after night, I was locked away in the darkness, utterly alone, with only my terror and tears for company. When other children viciously attacked me, I screamed and begged for help, desperately pleading for someone—anyone—to care, but the staff just watched and walked away, leaving me bleeding and broken. No one came. No one ever came.

These horrific experiences didn't just hurt me—they destroyed something fundamental inside me. They ripped away my ability to trust another human being. The anxiety that grips me every single day of my adult life is suffocating and relentless. I'm trapped in a prison of my own making, desperately wanting connection but terrified to let anyone past the walls I built just to survive.

I watch others form close bonds and love freely, and I ache with loneliness, but I can't do it. I simply can't. That frightened, abandoned child still lives inside me, and no matter how many years pass, I can't escape the damage that was done to me when I needed protection the most.
