Providing your statement of abuse

In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

In Part 3, you need to provide a statement about your abuse. You can choose how you want to provide your statement. You can complete Q1, Q2, Q3 and Q4. Or you can:

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

During my time at Carluke, things were truly awful. It was a mixed unit, with children younger than me and others up to around sixteen or seventeen years old. Because of the wide age range, there was a lot of bullying happening between all the different groups. I was bullied regularly, and I remember trying to stay out of the unit as much as I possibly could just to avoid the constant intimidation.

The staff turned a complete blind eye to everything that was happening. They neglected me and the other children who were being targeted. I was called names, pushed around, and beaten up more than once. I remember being beaten black and blue, and even then, nothing was done about it. The staff had their favourites, and if those children were bullying someone, the staff would ignore it or sometimes even encourage it. It made me feel completely unprotected and alone.

There were also times when the staff restrained me, but it wasn't proper restraint. They would twist my arm up my back, pin me down, and use unnecessary force. It felt more like punishment than anything meant to keep anyone safe. Some of the staff members made me feel very uneasy — their behaviour was shady, and I didn't trust them at all.

All of this has had a lasting effect on my mental health. The bullying, the neglect, the physical force, and the feeling of having no one to turn to have stayed with me. My time at Carluke should have been a place where I was supported and cared for, but instead it became another environment where I felt unsafe, overlooked, and deeply affected by the way I was treated.
