In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

In Part 3, you need to provide a statement about your abuse. You can choose how you want to provide your statement. You can complete Q1, Q2, Q3 and Q4. Or you can:

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

I was just a child. Twelve years old. I should have been safe. I should have been cared for. Instead, Woodlands School became a place that stole something from me that I have never been able to get back.

Every single day within those walls, I endured abuse. Physical abuse that left marks on my body, and mental abuse that carved itself even deeper into my mind. It came from the staff — the adults who were supposed to protect me — and from other children. There was nowhere to turn. No one to run to. I was completely alone in my suffering.

I remember being restrained. Held down by the hands of people who should have been keeping me safe. The force they used left me with a scar on my face that I still carry with me to this day. I see it every morning when I wake up. It is a permanent reminder of what was done to me as a helpless child, and it has quietly destroyed my confidence in ways that are impossible to fully put into words.

I was neglected. Abandoned by a system that was supposed to wrap its arms around me. Instead, it let me fall — and no one caught me.

I never got the chance to just be a child.

Now, as an adult, I carry all of it with me. Every single day I live with complex PTSD, crippling anxiety, and mental health struggles that have shaped every part of my life.

What happened to me back then didn't stay in the past — it followed me, it grew with me, and it still lives inside me now.

I was let down in the most profound way a child can be let down. And I deserved so much better.
