The next section asks you to write your statement of abuse.

Section 2: Your statement of abuse

Please refer to page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance when filling in this form.

Please make sure that whatever way you provide your statement, you include all the information Redress Scotland needs to make a decision. You can find out more on page 35 of “Help to apply”.

You may find that writing this brings up feelings or memories. If you need support you can speak to a case worker who can refer you to further help:

- Telephone: 0808 175 0808 (freephone)
- International: +44 131 297 6500
Lines are open Monday to Thursday, from 10am to 4pm (except Scottish public holidays)
- Email: apply@redress-scheme.scot

Providing your statement of abuse

In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

In Part 3, you need to provide a statement about your abuse. You can choose how you want to provide your statement. You can complete Q1, Q2, Q3 and Q4. Or you can:

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

Your statement for Care setting 1

Please read page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance before you begin.

In Part 1, you will have already provided information about the care settings you were abused in. By providing this information here, your case worker can join together the name of the care setting with your statement of abuse.

Q1 | What is the name or location of the relevant care setting you were abused in?

(For example, the name of the care home, or the city or region where you lived in foster care or while boarded out).

Cardross Park Assessment Centre

Do not worry if you are uncertain about dates or time. Please provide your best estimate.

Q2 | When were you abused?

For example: a single date, an age, or an approximate time or time range.

1984

You do not have to provide names, if you cannot remember or do not feel comfortable doing so. If you do provide a name it will be passed to Police Scotland.

Q3 | Who was involved in your abuse?

For example: a member of staff, a peer or someone outside the care setting.

The information you provide will be used by Redress Scotland to make a decision about your application. Redress Scotland will use the “Assessment framework” to help them do this, available on gov.scot. Please be aware that it contains graphic descriptions of abuse.

Q4 | On the next page, please provide as much information as you can about:

- the abuse you experienced while living in this care setting
- what life was like for you during this time
- how the people responsible for your care and welfare failed to carry out that duty (within or beyond your care setting)

You can continue on additional pages if you need to.

Please read page 36 of “Help to apply” to find out more about what information you may want to include.

In the children's homes, I endured unspeakable neglect, sexual abuse, physical abuse, and mental abuse that has shattered my entire life. These weren't just bad experiences—they destroyed the child I was supposed to be.

Staff members hurt me so severely that I ended up hospitalized multiple times. The people who were supposed to care for me, to keep me safe, were the ones breaking me apart. Where was I supposed to go? Who was I supposed to trust? There was nowhere to hide from the very people meant to protect me.

I watched other children being abused, their cries and terror mirroring my own, and I tried desperately to save them. I reported it. I begged for someone to listen, to care, to do something—anything. But nothing ever happened. The staff did nothing. We were invisible.

Disposable. Nobody came to rescue us. Nobody cared. We suffered alone, abandoned by every adult who should have fought for us. Staff members sexually abused me in ways that still rip my soul apart. They touched me while I was sleeping—violating my body when I couldn't even defend myself.

They watched me shower, stealing my dignity, my privacy, everything that should have been mine alone. They walked into my room, shut the door behind them with that terrible click of finality, and touched me. I was frozen in terror. I couldn't scream. I couldn't fight back. I felt like I was drowning and no one could hear me.

Now, as an adult, I am broken. The trauma lives inside me like a poison I can't escape. PTSD haunts my every moment—I can't sleep without nightmares, can't relax without fear creeping back in. Anxiety suffocates me constantly. My mental health is in ruins. I can't trust anyone because everyone who was supposed to love me hurt me instead. I've built massive walls of insecurity around myself just to survive each day, just to keep breathing.

The innocent child I was deserved love, safety, and protection. Instead, I got hell. The adult I've become is still that terrified child inside, still fighting, still barely holding on, still wondering if I'll ever truly heal from what they did to me.
