Forrest Group Home, I was in Forrest Group Home for about a year, it was awful I was woken up in the middle of the night being sexually assaulted by the woman's husband. I was asleep and I woke up to him in my bedroom with his hand up my top trying to feel my up. I remember screaming loudly and running out of the place. I did report it at the time but nothing happened, it got swept under the rug and I got moved to a different home.

Balnacraig is one of the worse experiences of my entire life, Sometimes they would lock us in a basement in nothing but my under wear and slippers and would have to read a book, he would come down randomly and ask to recite pages of the book and if we couldn't then we would get beaten. Was constantly being abused and battered by members of staff in there it was horrendous. They had one room in there that was really dirty and had water leaking and was really cold and full of bed bugs and would occasionally make me stay in there for the night.
